BOOKMAKERS TO BE PROSECUTED FOR VAGRANCY

Ordinance on Subject Approved in 1921 to Be Invoked in Case Gambling Warrants Are Refused.

MEN IN GAME TO BE REPEATEDLY RAIDED

Cause in Law Covering Persons Engaged in Unlawful Callings Seen as the Trump Card.

Digging up a city ordinance against vagrancy, the police are determined to invoke it again against bookmakers, bootlegging saloon keepers, others and others apprehended in the renewed campaign against the breeding places of crime.

In the case of the bookmakers, who have seats on the horse races, they will be charged with vagrancy under this ordinance, if warrants of gambling offenses under the state laws are refused. Judging by past practice, it is likely that such warrants will be refused.

It is a coincidence which may be of significance that the new Police Judges appointed by Mayor Miller under his law enforcement policy took office today.

Ordinance Passed in 1921.

The vagrancy ordinance, which was approved in 1921, will make it possible for the police to think to harass the bookmakers, bootleggers and others to such an extent, by repeated arrests and fines that they will fold up their belongings and silently steal away.

Conviction under this ordinance may carry a fine as high as $300.

Vagrants are defined in the ordinance as follows: 1. Every person without any visible means of support who may be found loitering around houses of ill fame, gambling houses or places where liquors are sold or drunk. 2. Every person who shall attend or enter any gambling device of any kind. 3. Every person who shall be engaged in practicing any trick or device to procure money or other thing of value. 4. Every person who shall be engaged in any unlawful calling whatsoever.

It is the last clause especially that the police are relying on, but they think the clauses mentioning gambling can be invoked to the enforcement of bookmakers.

Referring to the bookmakers, the bootleggers and the others with deep sarcasm, Chief of Police Gerk said:

"We are going to make it as pleasant and nice for these gentlemen as we can. I want it distinctly understood that gambling of all forms, saloons that dispense liquor and the bums that hang around those places must go. These gentlemen are no credit to the community. They are vagrants and we are going to classify them as vagrants."

"This is going to be a clean city and we are going to clean it of any element that tends to breed crime. These gentlemen can look for raids frequently, if not daily. We are going to have law and order."

About 50 Simultaneous Raids.

Yesterday there was much police activity in the war on what the police consider to be crime's breeding places. It started with a surprise descent on 50 suspected bookmaking establishments.

Eight of these were found to be closed, but in the other 42, 108 municipal youths were arrested and booked at Police Headquarters as "suspected of gambling." This was accomplished by simultaneous raids at 1:30 p. m., throughout the downtown section. Four hours later, a raid at one more place resulted in the arrest of nine more men.

Police, cigar stores, barbershops and saloons were among the scenes of the raids. One man suspected of bookmaking in the Hotel Jefferson lobby was arrested there. Racing form sheets, betting tabs and other paraphernalia were seized in many of the places. Numbers of customers or visitors were arrested in some of the establishments, the largest number being 16, taken at Jacob Hoffman's, 7 North Broadway. Nine were arrested at the Orpheum Cigar Store, 500 North Eighth street.

Chief of Detectives Kaiser said:

"Bookmaking raids were not going to be sporadic but frequent. The employees of offices, warehouses and factories had complained, he said, that their men were idling around hooker's places and petty cash was being paid out of these men to wagers on races."

The afternoon and night before was kept up in another big haul with the arrest of 178 men, including about 20 men 19 years old to have been in possession of liquor. This morning turned up 18 suspects.

TRUCK DRIVER TO MEET NEW POLICE JUDGE ONCE MORE

Rosecan, on Way to Take Oath of Office; Hails Man to Headquarters.

Walter Trauph, 25 years old, of 7021 Stanley avenue, who drives a five-ton truck for the Motor Transport Co., had never seen City Judge Harry P. Rosecan, who took office today, before this morning. And Judge Rosecan had never met Trauph.

This morning they met on the Twelfth Street viaduct. Judge Rosecan was driving to the Municipal Courts Building to attend the inauguration ceremonies at 9 o'clock and officially receive the robes of his office.

Trauph was driving his five-ton truck in the middle of the street and seemed to be in no especial hurry, ignoring the horns of the impeded traffic. Over the viaduct at a snail's pace and in front of Police Headquarters, Rosecan maneuvered his truck to the driver's side to step inside where the Desk Clerk booked the truck driver for impeding traffic by failing to keep to the right-hand curbing.

After Trauph was released on bond he removed his truck from the center of the street, where, during the proceedings, it had stopped three southbound street cars and a line of automobiles.

Judge Rosecan and Trauph will meet, at least once more, tomorrow morning in the former's Police Court No. 1.

BAVARIAN DIET ADJOURNS TO PARTAKE OF BOCK BEER

MUNICH, Bavaria, May 1.—Responding to a formal invitation from Dr. Held, the Premier, the members of the Bavarian Government and the Diet yesterday morning adjourned to the Hofbrauhaus, where the new May bock beer was officially on tap.

As this particular spring brew is a third guardiau institution and the annual pilgrimage to its official source is a nonpartisan affair, there was a full quorum of the legislators present.

Native Munichers no longer enjoy a monopoly of this particular May vintage and complain bitterly over the influx of tourists, who consume a major portion of the output.

LUMBER FIRE VISIBLE 20 MILES AT BRAGG CITY DESTROYED.

STEEL, Mo., May 1.—Fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the lumber yard of the A. B. Smith Lumber Co., of Bragg City, 16 miles west of here, last night, consisting of over 10,000 cubic feet of dried lumber ready for the market. The fire originated at the lower end of the yards at about 6 o'clock in the afternoon, and, despite the efforts of the company fire department, the use of dynamite, consumed the entire stock of lumber and threatened destruction of the plant, one of the largest hardwood lumber plants in Southeast Missouri, employing about 60 men. The fire could be seen from a distance of more than 20 miles away.

OZARK FRUIT CROP SAFE

By the Associated Press.

JOPLIN, Mo., May 1.—For the third time in three days the Ozark fruit crops last night escaped serious damage by frost, and first shipment of the 1925 strawberry harvest was sent out of the Joplin district today.

A heavy frost was reported over a wide territory south of Joplin last night, but growers said strawberries were advanced to such a stage of maturity that they were only slightly damaged.

Harvesting of the Ozark strawberry crop, said to be the largest in history, will begin in earnest next week.

BUDGET BILL OF $24,721,264 IS BEFORE ALDERMEN

Measure, Providing 9-Cent Tax Increase Because of Drop in License Levy, Also Introduced.

6500 EMPLOYES OF CITY AWAIT PAY

Provision for Boost in Firemen's Salaries Not Included in Bill as Submitted.

The budget bill, providing for an appropriation of $24,721,264.82 for current expenses of the city government for the fiscal year 1925-26, beginning last April 14, was introduced in the Board of Aldermen today.

At the same time there was introduced another bill providing for an increase in the tax rate from $2.47 to $2.55 on the $100 value of property, the 9-cent increase being attributed to a reduction in license tax collections and a raise in police salaries. The Aldermen did not provide for an increase in firemen's salaries, approved at the April 7 election, and if it becomes effective, a supplementary appropriation bill will be introduced.

6500 Have Not Been Paid.

City employees numbering 6500 exclusive of police, are directly interested in the budget bill, as they have not been paid for a month and will not be paid until after the bill passes, because of lack of funds. Usually they are paid semi-monthly. Unless unforeseen difficulties develop, the bill will come up for passage Monday.

Another source of vital interest in the budget bill is the fact that it provides for about 200 fewer employees this year, in the interests of economy. The ones upon whom the ax will fall are not named in the bill, this being left to department heads. Employees in the street and park departments will be hardest hit.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

OSSINGH, N. Y., May 1.—Morris and Joe Diamond, and John Farina went to their deaths in the electric chair in Sing Sing prison last night for the murder in Brooklyn in November, 1923, of William H. McLaughlin and William S. Barlow, West End Bank messengers, who were carrying about $43,000.

The murderers offered no chance to the two bank messengers to escape with their lives. They had not offered them a chance to raise their hands and surrender.

More Diamond, first of the condemned men to die, trembled a bit, but boldly held his head erect as he pronounced himself and his brother innocent.

Joe walked to the chair with his hands in his pockets and asked God to burn his soul in hell if he were guilty.

Farina, stolid of stoics, carried a cross in one hand, a lighted cigar in the other. He flipped the cigar, kissed the cross, called "Good-by, all!" and died. A tremor, not a quiver, not a bit of sagging save that of the body as the current was turned off.

A Night of Silence.

It was a night of silence at Sing Sing—the silence of a mist broken by an almost equally silent drizzling rain. The silence of 30-foot square death chamber broken by the last words of men led to this world: the silence of a dozen legal witnesses to a legal killing; the silences of hardened prison guards who hung their heads and whispered to each other. "God, I hope I can face death as coolly;" the silence of sudden death inflicted by an ancient prison electric chair.

The appropriation for the office of Building Commissioner is for only two months. At the end of that period, it is understood, Director of Public Safety Brod, who receives $5,000 a year, will take over the building commissioner's job. James G. McElveen, when increases become effective in July and will amount to $587,275 for the remainder of the year. In other appropriations, a reduction of $267,157.05 was effected mainly by reducing the number of employees on the payroll. The raise in the tax rate, Deputy Comptroller, Gunn explained, is necessary to take care of a deficit of approximately $500,000 incurred last year when certain banks and manufacturing concerns refused to pay taxes on their stock and some savings.

3. For the support, maintenance and operation of the various city departments, exclusive of the Water Department. $18,827,572.32.

This sum includes $1,030,500 for new public work and special purchases.

3. Appropriated out of waterworks revenue, $2,409,750. This sum includes $2,265,250 for operation and maintenance of the Water Department and $144,500 for new public work and other special purchases.

4. Appropriated out of special fund for sprinkling streets, from Feb. 1, 1925, to Jan. 31, 1926, $350,000.

The 9-cent tax rate is expected to produce sufficient revenue to raise the foregoing sums. Of the $500 increase, 8 cents goes to municipal revenue, and 1 cent goes to the schools. Thus, the $2.55 will be divided as follows: municipal maintenance, $1.35; bonds, etc., 24 cents; schools, 87 cents, and State of Missouri, 19 cents.

MANY MAY DAY ARRESTS IN ITALY; FASCISTI ACTIVE

Communist Headquarters Throughout Country Searched and Suspects Taken Into Custody.

TAXICAB DRIVERS IN PARIS IDLE

All Traffic Suspended in Mexico City—Ten Meetings Raided in New York City.

By the Associated Press.

ROME, May 1.—May day was reported to be tranquil throughout Italy as a result of mobilization of police and Fascist militia in all large cities and thorough precautions by the authorities everywhere to prevent violence.

Raids of communists headquarters and arrests of suspect continued throughout the country.

In some of the larger industrial centers a few workmen took a holiday but started no disturbances, according to reports up to this afternoon.

The Impero says Rome police raided the offices of the Popolo and seized a quantity of leaflets, urging a workers' strike.

At Milan, one of the strongholds of the opposition to Fascism, 50 persons were arrested and thousands of alleged sedition documents were seized.

At Turin, the Fiat motor car factory workers that sera cons would be taken against those who refrained from work today and at the same time the local Fascist contingents prepared for action if necessary. At Trento two men who were posting May day proclamations were arrested.

No Taxicabs in Paris; No Parades Allowed.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, May 1.—Paris wore its customary aspect this May day morning except that there were no taxicabs on the streets, due to the drivers' 24-hour abstention from labor.

The atmosphere of calm was expected to prevail throughout the day, for the authorities had taken exceptional precautions, but there was an even more effective deterrent in the shape of rain.

Despite the taxicab men, the building trades workers were the only group to proclaim a full cessation of work, but most of the metal workers were idle because of the closing of several plants to avoid possible trouble.

Permits were issued by the authorities for small meetings outside of Paris, but steps were taken to prevent them from developing into manifestations likely to lead to disorder. No parades were allowed inside or outside the city.

The labor leaders appealed to the unionists, whether working or not, to be orderly.

All Traffic Suspended in Mexico City.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch from the Daily News, London, May 1.

MEXICO CITY, May 1.—In accordance with the rules made yesterday, Mexico City is without street cars, coaches, automobiles or business today. There is nothing going on except a giant labor parade. Even the saloons, restaurants and the other eating houses are closed. Tonight they will be allowed to take workers home.

American Ambassador Sheppard said yesterday afternoon that his chauffeur had been advised by the labor syndicate that if he used the Ambassador's car it would be at his own peril.

The ceremonies today included the unveiling of a plaque to Samuel Gompers and the laying of a wreath on the monument to the men executed after the Haymarket riot in Chicago. No newspapers were published today.

Ten Meetings Raided by New York Police.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, May 1.—May day eve was marked here by police raids on 10 meetings of communists, Socialists and alleged anarchists, at which all the participants were driven into the street. Only two arrests were made and those were young men handing out pamphlets of a reputedly inciting nature to school children.

The most important raid of the night was at the Manhattan headquarters of the Workers' party of America, where all members, including classes of the workers' league and the Trade Union Educational League, were driven into the street. Decks were broken open and literature confiscated.

W. Z. Foster, who was at the Manhattan headquarters of the Workers' party when it was raided, demanded that the raiders show their search warrants for breaking into the desks and their authority for ordering those present out into the street. Decks were broken open and literature confiscated.

Foster said he would make formal complaint with Police Commissioner Enright.

GREEN, ON VISIT, PLEDGES SELF TO GOMPERS' IDEALS

New President of American Federation of Labor Makes Brief Stop in St. Louis.

GREETED BY CITY'S UNION LEADERS

Re-Enunciates Policies of Conservatism Followed by Late Chief of Organized Workers of U. S.

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, successor of the late Samuel Gompers, spent two hours in St. Louis, last night, in which he met a number of Louis labor leaders and women, and was the guest at an informal reception at Hotel Clarendon.

On his way to Kansas City to attend the annual convention of the Railroad Clerks and Freight Handlers' Union, President Green paused here, as he phrased it, to meet "Sam Gompers' friends" to re-enunciate Gompers' policies of conservative labor leadership and carry on the work of organization at the later leader had planned.

"We have confessed, we have sinned, we have gone astray, we have spoken false," Then he went on in Jewish—with Morris repeating:

"We have trespassed, we have been faithless, we have robbed, we have spoken basely, we have done violence, we have forged lies, we have concealed evil. May it then be Thy will, O Lord, to forgive us."

Paid Perjury; His Last Words.

Morris stepped to the chair unaided and closed his eyes. "Paid perjury," he muttered. His right trouser was pulled up and the wires fastened to his leg. Other electrodes were placed on the wrists.

He was strapped in. There was a moaning sound like a street car motor as it pulls up a hill. The switch had been turned and life was leaving.

It was 11:09 as the current went on. It continued 1 minute and 15 seconds. Dr. Amos Squire stepped forward with stethoscope as guards bared the man's breast. A moment later he applied the electrician.

At 11:13 the doctor stepped back and said calmly: "I pronounce this man dead."

White-garmented men came forward, lifted the body to the table and wheeled it out. As the body left through one door, came that gentle knock at the other and in walked Joe Diamond, 21, slender and sardonic, where his brother had been bulky and just a bit bewildered.

"Many men go to the gallows or prison, but they are innocent and don't mean it," he boldly said. "Hands still in pockets. 'I tell you gentlemen, I am innocent. May God burn my soul in hell if I am not.' Perfured testimony convicted me. God help my mother."

Flush of Youth or Excitement.

He withdrew his hands, stepped to the chair, sat down and was strapped in. There was no pale ness about his boyish face, rather the flush of youth—or the flush of excitement in facing an adventure which none could describe.

Dr. Squire took out his watch and pencil to make the official record. The current went on at 11:26. Two shocks were given, and as he was wheeled out, came that soft tap again at the other door.

"I Face My Maker."

"I go to face my maker," he said in an even tone that was neither high nor low. "I face him in a few moments."

He turned to the chair, faced back, and called: "Good-by, all!" Then, to Warden Lawes: "Thank you for your kindness" and to the guard who strapped him in. "Good-bye, Dan."

The moan of the electric current, a tightening of his body against the straps and the drone of Father McCaffrey: "St. Peter, pray for him; St. Paul, pray for him; St. John, pray for him; St. Anthony, pray for him."

The current started at 11:29 and ended at 11:36.

Back of this tragedy of three men and an electric chair was another tragedy enacted through the day.

"Give me two hours," she telephoned to Robert H. Elder, her Brooklyn lawyer. "and I'll produce Luciano and he'll make a confession that will free my brothers."

She and Angelo jumped in a cab and sped to New York, but the electric switches were not synchronized. Their search was fruitless.

The Farinas and the Diamonds said farewell to their kin. Then they decided among themselves the order in which they should die.

WITNESS ASSERTS SHEPHERD VISITED DETECTIVE AGENCY

Woman Says Murder Case Defendant Left Office Once "So Drunk He Couldn't Walk."

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Gladys Roberts, who said she formerly had occupied her spare time by working as a detective for the Jones Detective Agency, testified today at the inquest into the death of William N. McClintock, Mrs. Emma McClintock and Dr. Oscar Olson, that she had seen William D. Shepherd in Jones' office several times. Shepherd, foster-father of "Billy" McClintock, is under indictment charged with the murder of the young man by typhoid inoculation.

Miss Roberts said on one occasion, when Shepherd left the detective's office, he was "so drunk he couldn't walk." Jones, she asserted, also was intoxicated.

Listened at Keyhole.

On that occasion, the witness said, Shepherd and Earl P. Clark, who testified yesterday that a lawyer representing Shepherd had offered him $5000 to sign an affidavit, were in the office at the same time but in separate rooms. Shepherd from an adjoining room overheard John Jones talking to head of the detective agency, talked with Clark. After Clark left, Shepherd and Jones had a conference.

"I listened at the keyhole while they talked," Miss Roberts said. "Lester Oakley, another employee, listened to the same keyhole. I saw Jones give Shepherd a drink."

The witness said the first time she asked Jones what he was and was given the reply "Brown; a detective."

"Stick to One Story."

On the occasion when Shepherd and Jones had the drinks and a conversation after, Jones had talked with Clark, Miss Roberts said she heard Jones tell Shepherd to "stick to one story and you won't get caught."

Previous to Miss Roberts' testimony, Dr. W. D. McClintock, the coroner's chemist, testified of the finding of mercury in the body of Mrs. Emma Nelson McClintock, mother of "Billy" McClintock, in sufficient quantity to cause death within 10 days. He told of examining the body of Mrs. McClintock, who died 16 years ago, and Dr. Oscar Olson, brother of Judge Harry Olson, who instigated the inquiry into the deaths of young McClintock and the others.

The witness said traces of mercury also were found in the body of the doctor, although he did not attribute death to that cause.

Asked by Judge Olson if certain poisons could have been used to kill his brother, Dr. Olson, which would leave no trace that could be noted after exhumation, Dr. McNally replied not.

Mrs. Oscar Olson, widow of the doctor, testified that a young woman visited her home a short time after the coroner's inquest was begun, presumably seeking magazine subscriptions. She said the young woman asked her if she was going to attend the McClintock inquest and suggested that if she would go away or refrain from testifying that she would be given money. The witness said she was urged not to tell any confidences which Dr. Olson had told her concerning William D. Shepherd.

Tells of Missing Letter.

Mrs. Olson also testified that when Mrs. McClintock was in Texas in 1918, Dr. Olson received a letter from Shepherd who also was in Texas. She had been unable to find the letter, the witness said, but in substance it requested that Dr. Olson go to Texas to see Mrs. McClintock who had become ill and stated that if he would come it would be "to your advantage."

The doctor decided not to go because Mrs. McClintock herself had not summoned him and because he did not want to spend the money for the trip, Mrs. Olson said. The letter incident, she said, took place in California.

Three of Tug's Crew Missing.

ABERDEEN, Wash., May 1.—The tug Ryba of the Allman-Hulse Tug Boat Co. sank yesterday off Gray's Harbor Bar and three of the four members of the crew are missing. The Ryba went to place a pilot aboard the Japanese freight Etina Maru and sank on the way back.

The Japanese ship made an attempt to put out a life boat but was unable to get it away.

Then, when he disappeared, Russel said for months that the underworld took its own vengeance, but Salite said no, and grabbed Angelo Farina, brother of John.

"Give me two hours," she telephoned to Robert H. Elder, her Brooklyn lawyer. "and I'll produce Luciano and he'll make a confession that will free my brothers."

RANDOLPH, Vt., May 1.—A German police dog early today led three men to the barn of an abandoned farm in South Brookfield, where they found Earl Woodward, farm hand and a former convict, and 11-year-old Lucille Chatterton, who left her home in Granville with Woodward a week ago. Woodward was captured without resistance.

The capture brought to an un-dramatic and a week's search by armed posses through the wooded mountain townships in which Woodward had been a fugitive since he took the child from the home of her father, Walter Chatterton, last Friday night. Yesterday he had been discharged by a superintendent, Dr. C. H. Shumaker, who was "opposed to the administration."

Husband Disappears.

After Desidario's release on bond, after he was bound over to the Criminal Court at Crown Point, he disappeared, and the police today had been unable to find trace of him. The date of his trial has not been set.

With the identification regarded as conclusive by all the Lake and Porter County officials, search was begun for the man or men responsible.

CITY CURB MARKETS TO OPEN TOMORROW

255 Farmers to Sell Their Produce in Various Sections of St. Louis.

Seven municipal curb markets where farmers will assemble to dispose of their products will be opened in various sections of the city tomorrow morning. At most of the business men's associations of the neighborhoods are cooperating with the city in the annual opening and will award souvenirs and prizes.

This year 255 farmers have reserved space in the various markets for the season, which will end about Thanksgiving. The rules under which they operate require that all pay license fees of $10, sell wholesale, at prices no higher than those prevailing at stores in the neighborhood, and that produce dispensed in boxes, bags or baskets be of uniform quality throughout the container.

The markets and the number of farmers holding space reservation in each are as follows:

Market No. 1, known as the Water Tower Market, at East Grand Avenue and Twentieth Street, 65 farmers; No. 2, Deer street and Easton Avenue, 90 farmers; No. 3, Sarah Street and Easton Avenue, 50 farmers; No. 4, Grand Boulevard and Gravois Avenue, 20 farmers; No. 5, Broadway and Chippewa Street, 75 farmers; No. 6, Broadway and Schirmer Street, 10 farmers; No. 7, Union Boulevard and Easton Avenue, 75 farmers.

The farmers are not permitted to sell any produce except that grown by them on their own farms and are required to report each week to Edward Wigge, curb-master, on the amount of sales, the number of customers, the kind of produce sold and the number and kind of vehicles used.

IMMIGRANT VISA FEE TO REMAIN IN FORCE

Proposed Elimination of $10 Charge Effective in Regard Only to Travelers.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—In accordance with legislation passed at the last session of Congress the State Department has approached foreign Governments in an effort to work out a reciprocal arrangement under which the $10 passport visa fee, which travelers are required to pay, may be reduced or eliminated.

The prospect is that most foreign Governments will enter into such an arrangement, which however, will not lessen the visa burden of the European laborers who desire to emigrate to the United States. Even if the visa is eliminated as to Italian travelers bound for this country, the day laborer in Italy who wants to come here must continue to pay the $10.

Unfortunately for the immigrant, Congress fixed this fee in the immigration law, which is not affected by the authorization passed at the last session.

The $10 immigrant visa is one of the devices adopted by Congress to keep foreign labor out of the United States. One excuse advanced for it is that a much more exhaustive investigation is made before granting a visa to a foreign immigrant, at a proportionately greater expense. The $10 fee virtually covers the actual expense involved.

BILL FIXING PAY OF ST. LOUIS SHERIFF AT $10,000 SIGNED

Governor Also Approves Measure Reducing Court of Appeals Commissioners Here to Two.

JEFFERSON CITY, May 1.—Gov. Baker yesterday signed a bill passed by the Legislature, limiting the salary of the Sheriff of St. Louis to $10,000 a year, and requiring him to turn all fees earned by his office into the city treasury.

It is recalled that former Sheriff George W. Strodtman prompted an investigation of the Sheriff's fees in St. Louis by his report that his predecessors had made a practice of retaining certain fees in excess of the $10,000 a year salary. It was stated that this practice made the job worth about $18,000 a year.

The measure also fixes the salary of the Sheriff's attorney at $3000 a year. It enables the Sheriff to appoint as many deputies and assistants as are needed, subject to approval of the Circuit Judges, the salaries to be paid out of the city treasury.

Gov. Baker also signed a bill reducing the staff of commissioners of the St. Louis Court of Appeals from four to two. This bill was passed by the Legislature on the argument that the St. Louis Court of Appeals virtually had caught up with its docket, and that only two commissioners would be needed hereafter.

LOS ANGELES, May 1.—Lula Caldwell, alias Lula Chase, 27 years old, a negro, of 2024 Wash street, was convicted of first-degree robbery and sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary by a Circuit Judge Taylor's court yesterday.

Oscar Mudd of 1521 Ridgeway avenue, Wellington, identified her in court as the woman who, with a negro who has not yet been arrested, robbed him of $70 and other property in a holdup at Fifteenth street and Lucas avenue on the night of Dec. 23 last. She was arrested an hour later at 1507 Lucas avenue and a pair of gloves and other articles taken in the robbery were found in her possession.

"Home Study Unnecessary."

CHICAGO, May 1.—Home study for school children is regarded as unnecessary by William McAndrew, superintendent of Chicago schools.

"There is no reason why the parents should be pestered by their children at night," said the superintendent today. "I know of only one case where home study is really beneficial, and that is in the case of children of foreign parentage."

DIAMOND JUBILEE

Saturday—Your Last Opportunity to Share in the Savings of Our Great Diamond Jubilee Celebration

All articles of merchandise throughout the entire store that are now marked with Diamond Jubilee Tags represent savings in price not possible to provide regularly — therefore all Diamond Jubilee Price Tags will be removed Saturday Night

All Jubilee Merchandise not sold will be returned to the regular prices.

The decorations will come down and the greatest value-giving occasion that St. Louis has ever seen will close at 6 P. M.

Like all Vandervoort merchandise, these Diamond Jubilee items are good to the last article.

Renewals and reserves have provided, in many cases, merchandise to last to the final moment, and in every case, of the same Vandervoort standard of quality, the same genuine merit as has characterized this event throughout the greatest merchandising event ever seen in St. Louis.

Our comparison and inquiry assures us that nothing like the Vandervoort Diamond Jubilee has been approached by any mercantile establishment in the world.

The continued momentum and the tremendous public response has been unequalled in our entire seventy-five years of history.

This is important to you, as it is the most convincing evidence that the special features provided for this Jubilee have been proven, daily and consistently, as the unsurpassed values of St. Louis, measured not alone by price, but by assortment, completeness and quality.

The Diamond Jubilee was planned for three weeks, to end Saturday night, May 2nd.

In accordance with that plan, world-wide arrangements were perfected for special merchandise at special prices for the period of the sale.

Other plans have been made for the days that follow the Jubilee. But the Diamond Jubilee itself and all of the special Jubilee features and Jubilee prices end Saturday night.

We, therefore, urge you to make the utmost of the last day!

NEW PUBLIC SERVICE BOARD TAKES OFFICE

Emergency Garbage Disposal the First Matter to Be Considered.

The Board of Public Service appointed recently by Mayor Miller was sworn into office at 10 a.m. today and immediately took up the question of disposal of the city's garbage.

Consideration was given to the letting of an emergency contract for disposal of garbage, this action being necessary as a result of a Circuit Court decision recently enjoining the Board of Public Service from carrying out a contract with Charles L. Rea of Kansas City who was given a five-year contract for disposal of the garbage at 74 cents a ton.

The injunction was issued on application of the Jefferson Distributing Co., which has the contract present at the time. They alleged that the contract with Rea was illegal because it failed to include an estimate of the cost of the garbage disposal for the five-year period.

Provisions of the ordinance pertaining to garbage disposal permit the letting of an emergency contract by the President of the Board of Public Service.

The members of Mayor Miller's Board of Public Service, which is his personal cabinet, are: President, E. R. Kinsey, who was re-appointed; Director of Public Utilities, Edward E. Wall, former Water Commissioner; Director of Public Welfare, Harry L. Salisbury; Director of Streets and Sewers, Robert B. Brooks; and Director of Public Safety, John H. Brod Jr.

James A. Hooks, retiring director of Public Utilities, was presented with a diamond stickpin and diamond cuff buttons by office employees at a formal party yesterday. Mrs. Hooks, who was married last week, received a bouquet of flowers. Hooks has served three terms as Director of Public Utilities under Mayor Kiel and was employed for eight years previously as Sewer Commissioner and Assistant Sewer Commissioner.

FRENCH AVIATORS PLAN FLIGHT FROM PARIS TO NEW YORK

Two War Veterans to Make the Attempt in a Specialty Built Machine.

Copied from "The News and Publishing Company" (New York World and Post-Dispatch). PARIS, May 1.—Two daring aviators from Paris to New York, of which the French air service gave hints the other day, is expected to be attempted toward the end of July. Two war veterans, Paul Tarascon and Francis Coll, will pilot a specially built machine equipped with a new engine invented in Germany but manufactured in France with German license.

One feature is a system of tanks with a capacity of 5000 litres of gasoline, more than enough for a 34-hour flight.

Tarascon, who lost a leg before the war, was one of the most brilliant war aviators, bringing down 17 enemy planes in a single combat. Coll is a former naval officer and accompanied Roget in the first remarkable flight across the Mediterranean. His special job will be to supply technical navigation knowledge.

There will be no naval escort. Tarascon and Coll have selected a route over England, Ireland, Newfoundland and Nova Scotia, and believe they have five chances to 100 to succeed.

"Quite sufficient," they say.

FRANK CARROLL ACQUITTED OF KILLING SALOON OWNER

East St. Louis Is Reарrested on Charge of Violating Parole From Reformatory.

Frank Carroll, 25 years old, East St. Louis, was found not guilty by a jury in Circuit Court at Belleville yesterday, after a trial of two days, of killing Stanislaw Wierciszewski, a saloon owner at 1432 Nectar avenue, East St. Louis, on the night of Jan. 12 last.

Wierciszewski was shot and killed by a man who entered his saloon. Carroll was arrested and charged with the murder. Mr. Wierciszewski failed to identify him when he was first taken before her, but did so on a second occasion. Carroll introduced witness to testify that he was elsewhere at the time of the shooting. The jury deliberated an hour and a half.

Carroll was rearrested on a warrant charging him with breaking his parole from the Pontiac Reformatory, where he was sent from Cook County on a robbery charge. He will be returned to Pontiac tomorrow. He has been held in the Belleville County jail for 14 months on the Wierciszewski charge.

Bloodhounds Trail Wounded Man. Spotted the post office at Brush City, Kan., May 1. — Wounded by vigilantes and a posse of farmers when he attempted to rob the post office at Brush City, Kan., early yesterday, John McGarry, 55 years old, was trailed with bloodhounds and captured later in a house near Brush City, where he had sought medical aid.

Shortly after McGarry was confined to a gurney, a man suffering from a gunshot wound in the chest appeared at the home of a farmer near Brush Creek and asked that the doctor be called. Bloodhounds of George Eaton of Kansas City arrived shortly after laybreak. The dogs led vigilantes and farmers to the home where the wounded man had appealed for aid. The man admitted he had broken into the store.

$800,000 IN BONDS

USED TO GET LOANS

Commerce Trust Co., Kansas City, Borrowed With the Assets of Navigation Co., Depositions Disclose

W. S. DICKEY ACTED WITHOUT AUTHORITY

Custodian of Securities, Also Director of Bank, Puts Up Bond Pending Receivership Litigation.

By CURTIS A. BETTS,
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 1.—Methods by which the Commerce Trust Co. of Kansas City, for many years headed by William T. Kemper, Democratic National Committeeman from Missouri, had used of virtually all the $800,000 of assets of the Kansas City Missouri River Navigation Co., headed by Walter S. Dickey, for money-borrowing purposes, without compensation to the Navigation company, have been disclosed in depositions taken here.

Testimony of Dickey and of officers of the Commerce Trust Co. has shown that Dickey, the custodian of the assets, gave the trust company permission to use them as collateral for loans whenever its officers desired.

Used to Obtain Loans With.

It was shown that at one time the assets, which consisted principally of Liberty bonds, were deposited as part of the security for $25,000,000 of Kansas soldiers' bonus money, which was held by the Commerce, and that on several other occasions the Navigation company's bonds were deposited with the Federal Reserve Bank in Kansas City for loans obtained by the trust company.

The litigation, in which the depositions were taken, was instituted by Frank W. McMillan, stockholder of the Navigation company, who is seeking a receivership and distribution of the assets.

For the last seven years the Navigation company has been a navigation company in name only. It owns no boats and has no business.

Of the 12 directors of the Navigation company, five also are directors of the Commerce Trust Co., which has had the use of the navigation company assets. They are Dickey, R. A. Long, A. W. Peet, J. J. Helm and F. D. Crabb, all wealthy and prominent in Kansas City business affairs.

The Kansas City Missouri River Navigation Co., founded 10 years ago was a pioneer in the river development movement. It had a fleet of boats, and while not a success financially, it helped in creating a public sentiment in favor of river improvement. Its officers now charge that the suit to dissolve it is a blow to the good waterways development. Attorneys for McMillan contend that the methods used by Dickey and others in the management of the company can be blamed for any injury that may have come to the river development.

Sold $1,200,000 Stock to Public.

The Navigation company was organized in 1908 with a capital stock of $200,000, which was distributed in equal parts among 13 Kansas City business men who constituted its first board of directors. This was common stock and its holders had all the voting power of the corporation. In 1912, $1,200,000 of preferred 5 per cent stock, which had no vote, was sold to the public in Kansas City.

In 1915 the company sold its fleet of boats to the Government for $500,000, which was placed in Dickey's custody as treasurer of the company. The money was invested in various Government securities, which were changed from time to time and through judicious business management, buying bonds at a low figure and selling them at a high figure, the assets by 1925 had been increased to about $780,000.

J. W. Perry, president of the Southwest Trust Co. of Kansas and former president of the Commerce Trust Co., testified to the use of the bonds obtained by borrowing them from Dickey. He said the trust company paid nothing for their use.

Borrowed Bonds From Dickey. G. H. Pipkin, assistant cashier of the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City, testified that the bonds were used as collateral three times for loans obtained by the Commerce from the Federal Reserve Bank, and that there was nothing on either occasion to show that the bonds were not the property of the trust company.

S. P. Wheat, cashier of the Commerce Trust Co., testified that Dickey frequently left the bonds with the trust company for safe keeping, and that a number of times the trust company borrowed them from Dickey. He said the question of whether Dickey had the right to loan the bonds had not been considered.

FACTS ABOUT TEA SERIES—No. 1
Tea as a Beverage

Tea first became known in China nearly 3000 years before Christ. In that country tea was greatly prized, both for its remarkable qualities as a beverage and for the almost religious ceremony attached to the drinking of it. Up to the sixth century, tea was used only for medicinal purposes. Even in the seventeenth century it cost $25.00 to $50.00 per pound. All tea caddies were constantly kept under lock and key. Today when even fine quality like "SALADA" costs less than one-third of a cent per cup, it is not surprising that the consumption of tea is increasing tremendously.

GOVERNMENT TO INVESTIGATE NEW TETRA-ETHYL GASOLINE Inquiry Prompted Largely by At-

Problem Involved.

Special to the Post-DISPATCH.
NEW YORK, May 1.—Largely as a result of attention centered by the New York World on the public health problem involved in widespread sale of tetra-ethyl leaded gasoline, a thorough investigation is to be undertaken for the first time by Surgeon-General Cummings and the United States Bureau of Mines.
It was announced yesterday.

The World announced exclusively Wednesday that Columbia University experts, commissioned to investigate the fluid, regarded its use as dangerous, and that two of the investigators had been affected by traces of lead poisoning. Although this story has been questioned officially by Columbia, it has not been denied that the forthcoming report will be adverse to the product.

The fluid, mixed with gasoline, prevents "knocking" of automobile engines. It was first estimated to it when lead poisoning killed five men in the Bayway plant of the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey and made a score ill.

BANK REPORT AND PLANT

Former Measure Provides for Re-

sioner to State Treasurer.
JEFFERSON CITY, May 1.—
A bill requiring the State Finance
Commissioner to furnish the State Treasurer with reports on examinations of all banks in which State funds are deposited, when such information is desired by the State Treasurer, was signed yesterday by Gov.
Baker. The measure enforces upon the Treasurer and his employees the same secrecy regarding such information on the conditions on banks as is required by law of the Finance Commissioner and his employees.

Baker signed another measure creating a State Plant Board, to have the power of making regulations to curb the spread of plant diseases, fight insect pests and enforce quarantines. The board is authorized to appoint whatever in-

CONGRESSMAN WILLIAMS DIES
Michigan Representative Succumbs
Suddenly in Baltimore Hospital.
By the Associated Press.

BALTIMORE, May 1.—Representative Arthur E. Williams, of Battle Creek, Mich., died at Johns Hopkins Hospital today.

Williams' death was totally unexpected.
He had been improving steadily ever since an operation for gall stones last April. He suffered a relapse last night, dying at 7 o'clock this morning of what the hospital doctors think was a blood clot traveling through the circulatory system. Congressman Williams was born at Ashland, O., 53 years ago. He was elected to fill a vacancy in 1923 and was re-elected.
His wife survives. His body will be returned to Michigan for burial.

EST FINDS COLISEUM SUITABLE FOR PLAY

Plans to Restore Lady Manners to Cast if "The Miracle" is Shown Here.

After inspecting the Coliseum this morning, Morris Gest of New York, declared that structure to be admirably qualified for a production of his colossal pantomime, "The Miracle," which would require the conversion of the interior into that of a Gothic cathedral.

The producer is here at the invitation of the St. Louis Playhouse, and, with his sponsoring plans bring "The Miracle" to this city during next January for a season of four to six weeks. It is estimated that a guarantee fund of approximately $300,000 will be raised, and plans for raising this sum were discussed at a luncheon afternoon at Hotel Statler, at which Gest met a committee representative of St. Louisans.

"The Miracle," based on a legend by Maeterlinck, was staged by William Bel Geddes, and its musical score is by H. P. Tuckerman. It runs for 18 months—six seasons at the Century Theater in New York, and has been seen in only one other American city—Cleveland. It ran three weeks at the Auditorium in this city. Gest plans, in case St. Louis guarantees the production, to restore Lady Diana Manners and Rosamond Pinchot to the leading roles, which they acted in New York. In Europe, the spectacle has been presented in London, Berlin and Stockholm, but not in sumptuous American dress. The properties of the show are now stored at Cleveland.

According to Gest, the Coliseum is better adapted to housing "The Miracle" than was the Cleveland Auditorium. He said the structure would serve as a shell, in which to construct the interior of a cathedral, and that the stage at the south end, extending about 73 feet into the arena, the remaining 60 of which would be equipped with pews, to be sold as seats, and help maintain the religious atmosphere of the production. The best seats, he thought, would prove to be those of the second balcony, because of the 85-foot height of the seats.

After the necessary reconstruction, he estimated that a seating capacity of about 9000—or 2000 more than that of the Cleveland Auditorium—would remain. The windows could be adapted as they now are, with coats of transparent paint to simulate stained glass. He found ample dressing room space available between the balconies. According to Gest, the pillars supporting the balconies will be used for masking some of the 10,000 feet of electric cables used in lighting the scenes. The promenade outside the arena would be useful, he thought, as stations for actors waiting their cues. He pointed out that the Coliseum has boxes, which were lacking in Cleveland and New York.

Gest was accompanied to the Coliseum by his literary adviser, Oliver M. Sayer; Charles F. Hatfield and R. M. Armstrong.

NEWSHAM GETS 7 YEARS FOR ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL Man, 28, Fired Upon Young Woman and His Successor in Her Favor.

A jury's sealed verdict opened in Circuit Judge Ittner's court today convicted Charles Newsham, 28 years old, of 811 Penrose street, of assault with intent to kill, and fixed his punishment at seven years' imprisonment.

On Nov. 4 last, he fired shots at Miss Clara Maffitt and Fred Dirschtein of 905 Lani street, who had succeeded him in Miss Maffitt's favor, in her home, 1802 South Eleventh street. The shots went wild, but First Newsham struck Dirschtein on the head with his revolver. Miss Maffitt admitted to these facts, but Dirschtein refused to testify that Newsham was his assailant. However, Assistant Circuit Attorney Stack testified that Dirschtein had told him on several occasions that Newsham was the man.

In 1914, Newsham was sentenced to a three-year prison term for burglary, but was paroled at once, and in 1922 he was sentenced to serve 7 days in the Workhouse for carrying a concealed weapon.

'MAN VS. BEAST,' BRITAIN'S 1925 'PROBLEM PICTURE'

Sir William Orpen Satirically Compares Humans With Bear With Ring in His Nose.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, May 1.—Today was "private view day" of the spring exhibition of the Royal Academy, the most important event in the English world of art, and as usual society and fashion made it the occasion for visiting Burlington House, where the newest things in spring styles and to view the best of the year's paintings.

The late John Singer Sargent's paintings attracted large throngs of admirers. Queen Mary, who with Princess Victoria and Prince and Princess Arthur of Connaught, visited the exhibition yesterday gave special attention to Sargent's canvases.

This year's "problem picture," which is likely to arouse the most comment, is Sir William Orpen's "Man Versus Beast." In which man is satirized around a showman's booth in Paris are satirically compared with some disadvantage to them, to a Polar bear with a ring in his nose.

The portraits include that of Sir John Lavery; of his wife, Lady Hazel, formerly of Chicago, a study of Bernard Shaw and another of the Jockey, Steve Donoghue. Altogether, there are more than 1400 exhibits which will be open to the general public Monday.

School to Replace "Alimony Club."

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Ludlow Street Jail, famed as the headquarters of the "Alimony Club," and long used as a debtors' prison, will be replaced by a high school, it has been decided today by city officials.

The red brick jail in the heart of the lower East Side became nationally known when it was used to house delinquent husbands who had become remiss in paying alimony as ordered by the courts. The old West Thirty-sixth Street police station will be the new home of the "Alimony Club."

30 KILLED IN WRECK OF BERLIN EXPRESS

Train Carrying Russian Economic Mission Leaves Track and Goes Down Grade.

By the Associated Press.
STARGARD, Prussia, May 1.—It is not yet explained whether the wreck this morning of the Eydtkuhnen Berlin express near here in which from 30 to 40 persons were killed and about 40 injured was caused by accidental derangement or was the act of political malcontents. Some color is given to the latter theory by the fact that a Russian economic commission, headed by Dr. Markoff, director of the Russian economic institute for the Baltic States, was aboard the train.

The third and fourth cars of the train were telescoped, killing most travelers in the third coach and injuring many of those in the fourth. Some bodies were terribly crushed. Limbs were torn from some and still others were found considerable distances from the wrecks.

The locomotive and most of the coaches were hurtled down a steep grade and only one sleeping car and one coach remained on the track.

The derailed train tore down the telephone wires, cutting off communication with Poland. The train was in charge of a Polish crew.

The local hospital was unable to care for all the injured and some were transported from Stargard to nearby towns.

TEN YEARS AFFLICTED—Had tried every known remedy—undergone operation, but failed to get cured. Fifty-seven years old, I had decided my case was incurable. Today am sound and well. Have gained 23 pounds. Glad to answer any questions about treatment.

St. Louis, Mo., April 11, 1925.

Dear Dr. Coe:—I had been afflicted with a fistula for ten years. I had tried every remedy I heard of, had even been to the hospital and undergone an operation, but it did not cure me. I am 57 years old and had decided there was no cure for a man of my age.

Since taking your treatment I am sound and well. I have waited to be sure that it was a permanent cure before writing this letter. I have gained 23 pounds and feel better and stronger in every way.

I am certainly pleased with your treatments, and am only too glad to answer any questions regarding you and your treatment.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—
Golfer Herbert S. Hadley of Washington University, St. Louis, aroused the American Law Institute to enthusiastic applause in a formal attack on the junkets of several American magnates at a time when they needed by the Government as witnesses in the pending suits to lift the Sinclair and Doheny leases. Telling of grave defects in administration of the crime in the United States, Hadley said the point that there had been no noticeable improvement in justice in the fact that "representatives of business interests" gone to other countries where they wanted as witnesses here "are regarded as fugitives from justice." "I regard a fugitive as a fugitive from justice," declared Hadley.

Speaker Is Applauded.
The applause which followed no doubt the sentiment with the approval of the judges and law professors invited for the annual meeting of the institute.

Hadley expressed the hope the next Congress would pass authorizing treaties between states under which the Governor of one state might make application on the part of the state for the return of a fugitive. About 200 members of the institute were present at the meeting which was held in Memorial Hall. Among them gathered around Hadley to graduate him on his call to form of criminal procedure former Assistant Attorney-General Crim, who conducted the prosecution at Chicago.

"You are working on the lines," said Crim.

Explanatory of Report.
Hadley's speech was explained of a report which has been sent to the institute by a committee which is chairman, dealing with the criminal law and procedure in the United States.

This report, the result of exhaustive investigation, is now before the council of the institute and is expected to come to the full institute tomorrow for approval.

The other members of the committee, both of whom with Hadley signed the report, are Dean Lam E. Millik of the University of Pennsylvania law school and G. Milburn of the New York bar. In an effort to find out what was wrong with criminal justice in the United States, the committee procured statistics on crime covering all the states of the Union and the large cities. The city regarded as important "the problem of crime in the United States is essentially a problem of the city."

Conclusions After Survey.
"My conclusion," said Hadley, "is that in not more than one-half of the cases of major crime in the United States is there adequate punishment of the criminal. Of cases going to trial, not more than 25 or 30 per cent result in jail punishment and of those who go before juries, not more than 50 per cent are convicted. As we citizens must face the fact that society in the United States is relying on a system of criminal law which is 50 per cent inefficient, a system which is 75 per cent inefficient with respect to the actual incidence of the crime."

"The problem before us then is how can society endure when it depends on a system of justice which is 50 per cent inefficient. We find why conditions exist here do not exist in other countries apply the remedy."

Some Bars to Efficiency.
In enumerating some of the to the efficient administration of justice, Hadley mentioned especially the immunity of the defendant against having the attention of the public called to his failure to appear in court.

"As a common sense protection," he asked, "why should not the defendant be allowed to stand, and if the defendant

PARIS, France, April 20.—

From Moscow is being organized and directed the greatest conspiracy ever known. There have been plots before, plots against authority, plots against society, plenty of them.
But never before had any single individual or any group set out deliberately to achieve the violent overthrow of the existing order in all civilized countries here, nor has the idea been conceived of really carrying out a phantasmagoria, for it has been partly executed wherever commission has had a temporary success, and it is being carried out right now in the unhappy land which used to be called Russia.

Agents of Destruction Everywhere.

The means by which the conspirators hope to attain success are: the enrollment in the communist brotherhood, in all countries of corps of fighting rebels and agents of espionage, to secrecy and to blind obedience; the amassing arms of the kindly, cultured masses and of so-called "idealists" and "liberals" by hypocritical pacifist and humanitarian propaganda—"help Russia," "hands off Russia," "down with capitalist imperialism," "down with the white terror," etc., etc.The direct agents of this conspiracy are the members of the secret and fanatical communist brotherhood that is extending its ramifications throughout all countries. Its heads are the triumvirate of red dictators in Moscow—Kamenev, Stalin, Zinoviev—cruel, cunning, utterly unscrupulous, the very embodiment of philosophic materialism carried to the utmost refinement of inhuman dialectic.
Its organs are the treasonable and corruptive groups societies and associations known collectively as the "Red Army."

Half Belongs to Wife.

"By the statute law of California," the Judge ruled. "Whatever is earned by both husband and wife as well as the products of community property become a property of the community. In estimating what the wife's contribution is the conduct of the household and the care of her children it can be said that in every practical sense she is contributing to the earnings of her husband. It will not do to say that she has no interest in those earnings until her husband dies or she is divorced. It is the marriage which creates the ownership; death or divorce merely gives possession."The Judge concludes that "the truth and substance is that only one-half of the income really belongs to the husband; the other half to the wife and right and justice to half and half."

Activity in the "Border" States.

"But what?" it may well be asked,
after all these assertions, "are you sources of information? Have you been to Russia? Have the bolshevists taken you into their confidence?"

Is a Broader Conspiracy.

The exposure of the organization, policies and immediate tactical objectives of the "Third Internationale" is a story so fantastic that it seems unbelievable. Some readers no doubt will smile and comment knowingly upon "the sensational exaggerations of the press." Unfortunately, however, the great conspiracy is not a phantasmagoria, but a living reality. Its perpetrators are as bold and skillful as any gangsters in the underworld. They are as sanguinary as any bandits ever known. They are as treacherous as any pirates ever known. They are as hypocritical as any charlatans

THE POST-DISPATCH PLAT-FORM.

I know that my retirement will make me different in my political parties, than it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely passing news, always be drastically independent; never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

Disabled Veterans' Entertainment

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
In your issue of recent date a letter was printed from Chapter No. 1, Disabled American Veterans, signed by the Chapter Adjutant, Lyman J. Falls.

The basis of this misunderstanding grew out of the inadvertent statement in your paper that the proceeds of the two weeks' performances under the auspices of Chapter No. 12 would accrue to Mrs. Edith Quirk, in whose husband's memory our chapter is named. The statement was never made by us and your paper was courteous enough to appreciate the embarrassment to us caused by the statement and to print a correction promptly. However, the letter from Chapter No. 1 leaves a false impression with the public and we would appreciate the space to state our side of the question.

On Armistice day last year the annual sale of "forget-me-nots" was held for the benefit of all disabled veterans. Our chapter (No. 12) worked loyally and effectively throughout the sale, and when it was completed we voluntarily turned over all funds, rightfully ours, to Chapter No. 1, in order to help them maintain their clubhouses at 3737 West Pine boulevard. This act of comradeship left us without funds to carry on our own welfare work, to which the proceeds of our entertainment at the Columbia Theater during the next week will be devoted.

The publication of this statement in your column will be appreciated by the members of St. Louis Chapter No. 12, Disabled American Veterans.

RALPH R. CORAN,
Commander, Chapter No. 12, Disabled American Veterans of the World War.

Bandits and Lotto Players

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

A PEACEFUL citizen quietly chatting with his wife of an evening in his place of business is murdered in cold blood by cowardly masked burglars. The blue-coated representative of the law, armed with club and gun, patrols his district, carefully searching meeting places to prevent gambling by women and children in the degrading game of lotto.

The merchant is killed, the thief in the night has escaped, but the gambling game is prevented.

Forsight, diligent search for the murderers is impossible and their apprehension will not materialize, for the hirelings of the law, as told us by the daily press, will now be busily engaged in gathering evidence to combat the mayoralty contest.

PARADOX.

Salvage Men's Wages.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

THE best way to secure liveable salaries for the members of the St. Louis Salvage Corps would be to take the matter up direct with the 45 British-controlled insurance companies, the 20 American insurance companies, British-controlled, and the 50 American and foreign companies, both owned and foreign owned, who do business here. More than half of the above-mentioned insurance companies pay pro-rata for the maintenance of the St. Louis Salvage Corps. In New York, Chicago and other cities, the salvage corps members are paid considerably higher salaries and the same foreign capital maintains them.

It seems to me it is up to the representatives of the foreign insurance companies who form the St. Louis controlling board to keep up with the times and, as prices on all commodities increase, increase the salaries of the men under them.

Owing to the high rents, even in the poorest sections of this city, and the high cost of flour, meat, pork, lard, etc., the advance in cost of uniform cloth, rubber boots, rubber coats and woolen underwear, and the fact that the work done by these men is so wearing on their clothes, to say nothing whatever of the wear and tear on the constitutions of the men, making it necessary to make frequent trips to physicians and specialists to keep fit, they should receive more pay.

O. B. WISE.
We're in the Red.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

NOW, look here, mister, I ain't got no more time or stamps to waste on you, 'cause I'm leaving town for my farm in the Ozarks. But as a last shot in this, I want to say that I'm not a prohibitionist. I'm body-and-soul personal, and don't care three whoopee if darn fools want to guzzle booze or malt shop. You sure are a funny feller. Was you ever out in the country? Don't you know honey bees never work on red clover? They can't. Only humble bees do that. Well, "where ignorance is bliss 'tis folly to be wise," and you sure are in a blissful state. Now, if this weather keeps on, neither of us will get honey. That's the story. Germans believe it to be true.

Just wait till I brush up on my rhetoric and composition. I'll write a little "piece" for "Bee Gleanings" and skin you alive, savvy! Goodby!

BEE MAN.

THE ELECTION CONTEST ISSUE.

If our esteemed contemporary, the Globe-Democrat, is right in reporting the plans of the Republican City Committee with regard to the contest for the mayorality, the Republican leaders will direct their efforts to two special purposes, namely, delaying the contest as long as possible, and discovering how the voters voted.

The reported plan is to make the inquiry broad enough to compare the ballot numbers with the poll lists and thus get the names of the voters who scratched their tickets and call them to the stand. A contest with this scope will require, it is estimated, a year and a half, and would reveal, of course, the names of the voters who scratched the ballots.

The Democratic committee is not charging fraud. It charges only that the instructions of the Election Commissioners to the judges were misleading and not in accord with true interpretation of the law, and that therefore the votes that were marked for Igoe and should have been counted for him were either rejected or counted for Miller.

Complaints have been made by supporters of Miller that the contest hampers the administration. The Republican plan, instead of reducing the time in which the administration would be hampered, would greatly prolong it, and would keep the Miller administration in office for a long time, regardless of whether the present Mayor was lawfully elected or otherwise.

The public is interested in only one thing: that is, whether the election was decided in accord with the will of a majority of the voters, or whether, by fraud or misinterpretation of law, or mistakes or misconducts, the will of the voters was defeated. That ought to be the interest of everyone concerned. Certainly no elected officer ought to hold his office, or desire to hold his office, unless he was actually elected by the lawfully counted votes of a majority or a plurality. There ought to be no unnecessary delay, and no desire for unnecessary delay, in deciding that question.

So far, no evidence of fraud has been reported, and no charge of fraud has been made by the defeated candidate. But evidence has been found of what is charged to be a miscount of the votes, under the misleading instruction of the Election Commissioners. This is the point at issue between the two candidates and their committees. If fraud develops, of course, it should be thoroughly investigated. But the thing to do, in the light of the evidence that has been gathered, is to determine, as quickly as possible, whether the count was correct or incorrect under the law, and whether Mr. Miller or Mr. Igoe was elected by the properly counted votes in the ballot boxes. Schemes to delay or defeat this end would be taken as a confession of a desire to profit by illegality and wrong doing.

A BOY "HERO."

Dan Wilson, 19 years old, became Kansas City's Chief of Police for a few hours as a feature of boys' week. During his brief tenure he led a raid on the home of Mrs. Mary Kearns and seized half a gallon of whisky. The inspiration for the raid came when young Wilson saw whisky being served as he peeped through the window of Mrs. Kearns' home.

There was a time when American boyhood scorned spies and spying. But Dan Wilson is growing up in a time when spying and informing and window-peeping have become national games. The ignoble spirit of intolerance is offered to youth as a substitute for the spirit of clean fighting and clean sportsmanship of the Frank Merriwell period.

No doubt those who encouraged Dan Wilson in his despicable act are delighted that a private home was outraged in such successful fashion. No doubt they are charmed with his sneaking window-peeping expedition. To them it is a high point of boys' week, a week supposedly devoted to the development of high character in American youth.

Today Dan Wilson, Kansas City's window-peeper, is a young hero. Ten years ago his own comrades would have given him a sound thrashing for this ignoble performance.

THE EDUCATION OF HENRY FORD.

All human history attests that happiness for man, the hungry sinner! Since eve ate apples, much depends on dinner.

—Byron.

We gather from a news agency report that Mr. Ford will no longer annoy his head with the complexities which are called the political causes of wars. All causes, he finds, are traceable to one source—dyspepsia. In other words, the Detroit philosopher, though now getting along in years, has just discovered dietetics. While the world will not indulge the rest of us in our new-born enthusiasms, when Mr. Ford lights upon what is to him a discovery, though be as old as the hills, he can say it in millions.

His most recent pursuit of cosmic forces comes from a peek into a workman's dinner pail in his own plant. He beheld a formidable array of meats, cakes and rich viands which the diner gobbled with avidity and topped off with a quart of milk. The man himself was a shadow, and, on investigation, was found to be anemic and contingently ill. Ford put him on a forced diet, and lo, new pastures green revealed themselves before the crusading millions of the flivver king.

Great oaks from Ford's acorns never fail to grow. Thus it is that a corps of experts have been called to the Ford laboratories to exhaust the subject of eats and eventually to discover the effect of dyspepsia on the tides of history. As it happens, Mr. Ford has entered a fruitful field, for, though the richest, he is not the first to tap this interesting vein of human conduct. And, happily for the rest of us, when Ford is being educated he can afford to pass education around.

A SIGH FOR KING BORIS.

It is spring and a news item from Bulgaria has come to remind us that spring is the time for love, as well as revolutions. Tucked between reports of bombings, suicides and rebellions in that distressed land is the advice that a royal match hangs in the balance. King Boris, we are told, loves Princess Ileana of Rumania. For long he has sought her hand. The Princess, however, has been coy. Were it not spring we might suspect that the Rumanian Ministers of State are the coy ones, but let us not spoil the story. The violets are blooming and a Princess立足.

That is the story. Germans believe it to be true. Perhaps it may quiet the fears of the American who is wondering, "Will Hindenburg invite the Kaiser to come back?" If it is true, maybe the President of Germany has not forgotten the old humiliation.

ago. The revolt has spread. Either through ignorance or disregard of romance the Bulgarian peasants are clamoring for a republic. Crass creatures, do they not see that every bomb buried is a thrust at a wavering maiden's heart? Can they not appreciate that every huzza for a democracy speaks "No" to the beloved of their lovesick King? A rose. A royal wooing! Cannot this interference with love be stopped?

Here is an appeal to the romantic heart of the world. Boris may be a bad King, but he is an ardent lover. Just when he is about to win his Princess as a King, he faces failure as an abdicating monarch. It must be lovely along the Danube now. We sigh for poor King Boris. We hope that the crisis may be put off, at least until Princess Ileana makes up her mind.

AS A RADICAL SEES MOSCOW.

Max Eastman, the American radical, has published a book in London, entitled "Since Lenin Died," which purports to tell how Trotzky was deposed, in violation of Lenin's deathbed wishes, by the bureaucracy which "has established and solidified to an extremely dangerous degree a dictatorship of officialdom within the communist party."

According to the preface of the book, published in the Post-Dispatch on Thursday, Eastman champions Trotzky's cause, though he does not hold his hero entirely blameless. He indicts Trotzky for failing to refute the "official lies" and "unrestricted vituperation" in the mistaken belief that party unity was more important than his own reputation. The author apparently feels that in this attitude, Trotzky was unfaithful to the political philosophy of Lenin.

Whether that is true or not, it is, in our opinion, an unimportant detail. The significance of Eastman's book lies in his description of the system which has succeeded Lenin, we are told, has a membership of 18,000 officials. It controls all mediums of publicity. Its power is so great that a supporter of Trotzky did not dare to defend him in public. Such being the case, it may fairly be inferred that Trotzky declined to join issue with this bureaucracy for reasons of discretion as well as for the sake of the communist party, and indifference to his personal reputation.

It must be assumed, too, that this vast, all-powerful bureaucracy did not suddenly spring into life on Lenin's death. It must have been in process of formation, it must, indeed, have been pretty well organized during Lenin's lifetime. And right there is the fatal flaw of communism, or any other ism that is predicated upon a Government of unlimited power. Bureaucracy is the inescapable fate of all such Governments, and, as certain as the sparks fly upward, bureaucracy develops into a ruthless, tyrannical dictatorship. One does not have to go to Moscow to learn that. Any person of average perception can read the preface of that truth in Washington.

As a matter of fact, despite its professions, the Government at Washington is almost as far as the Moscow Government is from the doctrine of Thomas Jefferson that the least governed people is the best governed. Moreover, the dictatorship of the proletariat, fallacious though it be, is no more of a falacy than the dictatorship of wealth. There is only one possible dictatorship under bureaucracy and that is the dictatorship of officialdom.

American democracy, no less than soviet Russia, must, soon or late, conduct a retreat from Moscow.

MURDER.

That murder is becoming an increasingly popular pastime is illustrated by some late statistics, which show 1900 New York City murders in the past seven years, with only 231 convictions. Last year 300 murders were unsolved, and this number is being augmented at the rate of six new murders a week, while authors remain unknown. Here is the story in figures:

Year.	Murders.	Convictions.
1918	210	28
1919	250	42
1920	233	33
1921	282	34
1922	296	38
1923	275	29
1924	333	27

With due regard to comparative density of population, these figures represent what is going on throughout the United States. The cause of this condition lies in an antiquated, anachronistic, absurd code of criminal law. A clever lawyer, a few technicalities, an insanity expert or two, and acquittals that have become the story of too many a murder trial.

HINDENBURG AND THE KAISER.

There is a story told of how the President of Germany, who was then a General, and the exil of Doorn, who was then his Emperor, fell out at an army maneuver. It has been long accepted as fact by German army officers and was brought to this country by American intelligence officers, who heard the barracks room gossip at the time von Hindenburg was called from retirement to take command on the eastern front. To be more explicit, a St. Louisian heard the story from the lips of Hindenburg's own aide.

The Kaiser and his General were commanding armies opposed to each other in a war game. At the climax of an imaginary battle Emperor Wilhelm led a division of Uhlans in full charge across an open field. It was a gallant ride, but old Hindenburg had placed machine guns so as to annihilate any foe crossing this unprotected terrain. A politic General might have said nothing and allowed his King to ride to victory. Not so with Hindenburg. At the summing up, which was done in earshot of the Kaiser's staff, Hindenburg said: "Sire, that was a pretty charge, but bad generalship. We must declare your brigade wiped out by machine-gun fire and award the victory to the army which I have." Thus with one

EDUCATION TO STOP WAR, SARGENT'S PLEA

Attorney-General Wants World-Wide Understanding Too Great to Be Broken Down.

By the Associated Press
PITTSBURG, Pa., May 1.—A program of education against war that will establish a world-wide understanding "too great and too sound to be broken down by national or imperial covetousness" is the presidential need, Attorney-General Sargent declared in an address last night before the Carnegie Institute.

"The desire for peace," he said,

"must grow from within; enough individuals must recognize fact in the cause of propaganda."

Calling attention to the huge cost approximately $37,000,000,000 of the 23 nations drawn into the world conflict, and the great tragedy of the death of 13,000,000 men and the incurring of billions of dollars in debts, the Attorney-General said:

"Any wonder that out of this worldwide horror is born a worldwide desire that some way be done to prevent its recurrence—to make a permanent peace?"

"Though we may not yet see the end we may thoroughly appreciate the terrible disease and we know some of the causes which can be removed."

Nations Closely Interlocked.

"So closely interlocked today are the interests of nations of peoples that when one nation in a life-and-death struggle, the fate of all is endangered. Commercially, finantially and socially, the globe is so closely and firmly bound together in interlacing threads that there is almost certain to be world peace world war."

Before the influences of the United States can be given to a school for peaceful settlement of international differences "without consideration of our own dignity honor independence," the Atto-ney-General said, "there will have been eliminated from the councils, the presence of the voices of numerous pretenders whose only ambition is to stand and stars continuously their own passion and decry the motives of anyone who suggests offers for consideration, something construction."

Speaks at Carnegie Institute.

The Attorney-General spoke at the twenty-ninth Founder's day exercises at the institute yesterday.

Announcement was made that paintings by members of the board of officers of the Mary Institute Arts

Association in honor of the new board were to be presented to the institute by the late J. Willis Dallal, as a memorial to his husband, the late J. Willis Dallal, prominent steel manufacturer. The paintings are

by Prandt Cotes, George Romney, and Joshua Reynolds. Sir Henry

Conde Nast of New York and his daughter, Miss Nastie Nast, arrived in St. Louis last night for a few days' visit with Mr. Nast's mother,

Mrs. Esther Benoit Nast of the Forest Park Hotel. Mr. Nast and his daughter will sail early in May from New York to spend some time in London and Paris, where Mr. Nast has offices. They will be entertained informally during their visit here.

Members of the younger set are interested in the life and hobbies of the Mary Institute students.

Interest in the upkeeping of a fighting

They will be played as long as nakeek their names. It is impossible to contemplate this show of naval at the Hawaiian Islands, and the great voyage of the American fleet to a Japanese point of view, with the

of a Japanese fleet to lower Call-without realizing that we could possibly play peace games as well as war in the Pacific Ocean.

These games, no doubt, are the more of the two to play. They demand the more of American relations with sufficient levelheadedness on the part of the nation to deal with the problem excluding the 49 Japanese by which deliberately insults our country.

They demand, once again, a sort has been made, sufficient concern to admit a blunder and to repeat of a law which are as unnecessary as are obnoxious. They demand, in the of American relations with Russia, familiarity with facts to recognize that Vladivostok and its hinter-

Russia is a Pacific Power which canprofitably be excluded from Pacific for won to friendship by abuse, years ago, in the Washington arms

the United States consented to on the possibility of a defense of the

and to abandon diplomacy in East which was based on force.

A wise and intelligent statesmanship has followed these concessions by attempt to continue the friendship of the Philippines, an attempt to take of the importance of Russia in Far peace, and an attempt to supply a non too solid four-power treaty by sort of association with the rest of world inside or outside the League of States.

American statesmanship has done none but four things. They have finished the war at the Hawaiian Islands. We have played peace, or improved since the outlook for security and confi-ence in the Pacific, though we have had not of opportunities before us.

ROAD BUILDERS.

At the Akron (O.) Beacon.

It was a good 50 years building the way, a big engineering effort in use. But it would not be regarded as so very wonderful in our own day.

Its bureau of public roads has just noted that more than 24,000 miles of highways, nearly enough to circle the earth, is scheduled for construction during 1925 alone.

Maintainance of 217,794 miles of road hitherto impossible is also planned. Approximately 30,000 is reported available for new construction, and $135,000,000 for improvement, while counties throughout the country will spend approximately $465,-

000 more. Since 1921 between 30,000

000 miles of surfaced roads have been constructed every year. If the Road had been faced with such an under-und and had needed to provide funds and maintain the roads, their employees could have had something to brag about along the line of world's wonders.

"To develop and maintain a city-wide organization to assure the election of such candidates.

"To collect funds for the conduct of the organization through a small charge for annual dues, and by donations from interested persons.

"To maintain close and active relations with other organizations in St. Louis which are interested in the maintenance of a high standard of educational administration.

"To keep in close contact with the work of the Board of Education and to report to members of the committee important matters in the proceedings of the board.

DORRIS AUTO PLANT SOLD; WILL CONTINUE

H. B. Krenning, Former Head, Buys $540,000 Assets for $115,000 at Auction.

A St. Louis concern which was a pioneer in automobile manufacture, the Dorris Motor Car Co., will not be closed following an auction yesterday, but will be reorganized under the direction of H. B. Krenning, of Arcadia, whose bid of $115,000 for the $540,000 assets of the company was higher than itemized bids.

Krenning was an organizer of the concern and was its president until 1917. Holding $100,000 preferred stock, the total issue, he is one of the sellers of his purchase and will be paid part of his own bid. He declined to discuss his plans until after a trustees' meeting today to ratify the sale, but it was generally understood that the plant of the plant, which closed Wednesday night, would soon be resumed. The service department at 22-30 South Sarah street, adjacent to the factory at 4109 Laclede avenue, and included in the sale, continued in operation today.

Sale was under a court order of Feb. 14, 1924, sustaining a petition of stockholders for voluntary dissolution. The petition stated that the company was solvent but had lost money since 1916, when a series of stockholder's organization or consolidation with other automobile manufacturers began.

Krenning was the financial organizer of the company in 1904 with George P. Dorris, engineer and Inventor and Webster Collum, formerly general manager and stockholder opposing dissolution.
The first corporation, capitalized at $50,000, took over the assets of the old St. Louis Motor Carriage Co., which had built "auto buggies," high-wheeled vehicles driven by a one-cylinder motor under the body, since 1898. The first product of the new concern was a four-cylinder automobile when present manufacturers of eight-cylinder machines were sticking reser-vatively to the "one-junger."

In six years the capital stock was increased to $325,000 out of earnings, and in 1917, it was increased to $1,000,000. The current passenger product of the factory is a six-cylinder automobile which sells for more than $4,000. Natural employment before the slacking up which accompanied plans for dissolution, was 350 men and women.

MEXICO UPHOLDS SEIZURE OF AMERICAN-OWNED PLANT

Note Explains That Power Plant Will Be Returned When Owners Prepare to Resume Service.
By Associated Press.
MEXICO CITY, May 1.—The Foreign Office, in a note to American Ambassador, Sheffield, sustained the action of authorities of the State of Vera Cruz in seizing the electric light and power plant at Jalapa, which is owned by the Higgins Estate, Inc., of New York.
The note presumes statements which virtually deny in their entirety the charges against the authorities who, William K. Boone, American manager of the plant, made to the Ambassador.

The Ambassador's protest, which was made April 16, after the Government had taken the plant, to settle a conflict between the company and striking employees, was construed by some owners and managers of foreign properties in Mexico as a test case of their rights. The Foreign Office note, quoting reports of Gov. Jare of Vera Cruz, and of a commission of Jalapa workmen, declares that the Government was justly because Boone left without naming a successor and the State could not permit the abandonment of the public service.

The Government of Vera Cruz is ready to return the property as soon as an accredited representative of the owners presents himself and is prepared to resume the furnishing of light and power.

NEW PLOT TO KILL

Guard Officers Discover Explosive Fuse in Subterranean Passage.

SOFIA, May 1.—Another attempt to assassinate King Boris was frustrated today by officers of the guard, who discovered an almost complete subterranean pas-they believed was intended to be set off by the Royal Palace.

The six men indicted on authorities. The former com-arrested yesterday, but he failed to relinquish his arms and fled.

Kossovski, Koef and Dimitrov have escaped. Publication of indictments against the lead conspirators indicates that the rage was to have been the sign for any outbreak of anarchy.
Sofia, alone, it is alleged, some 500 men, working in groups of five or ten, were to have attack-

COOLIDGE GIVES VIEWS ON TRAFFIC PROBLEM

Tells Motor Club Secretaries
Broadest and Most Inclusive
Solution Is Needed

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—President Coolidge, addressing a group of secretaries of motor clubs affiliated with the American Automobile Association today at the White House, declared the vexing traffic and industrial problem in the cities must be dealt with by the "broadest and most inclusive view." A solution cannot be worked out solely by quick movement of traffic, he said.

"It seems fairly certain," asserted Coolidge, "that if, a half-century ago, men could have foreseen the transportation revolution they would have agreed that it meant an end to the congestion of population in the limited areas of cities. It would have been assumed that when once the business man and the workman found themselves able to live many miles away from their employment, there would come along a sweeping redistribution of population spreading it over wider areas and organizing it in quite different communities."

Congestion Increased.
Yet experience has been quite the contrary. Instead of using the new transit facilities to end overcrowding, people have seemed determined to crowd themselves more than ever. The apartment house, the skyscraping commercial building, and the elevator have tended to increase congestion. Electric railways, subways and motor cars have tended to diffusion of the people. It must be said that thus far the victories have been all on the side of the skyscraper, the elevator, and an ever-increasing congestion of population.

"Some recent studies by engineers and sociologists have led to doubt whether the superior efficiency of the very great cities as business, industrial and cultural centers can be taken altogether for granted. They have advantages, but they also have disadvantages and the disadvantages seem to be multiplying fastest."

Readjustments Necessary.
I do not presume to judge between those investigators who conclude that the cities must inevitably go on with their rapid rate of growth and those others who tell us that transportation and industrial programs must be made to counteract this tendency, and bring diffusion of the population masses. But it must be apparent that whichever view is correct, many and difficult and costly readjustments must be made. There is need for concerted, fundamental and courageous consideration of all the questions involved. They reach a hundred times deeper than the mere superficial problem of getting streams of motor cars moved through the city streets. They have to do with the elements of social organization.

They concern vital phases of community welfare and progress.

The physical configuration of our cities, the direction of / the mighty current of the nation's commerce, the continent-wide distribution of population and industry, all are factors among the problems with which you are dealing. I cannot too earnestly urge you to take the broadest and most inclusive view."

MADRID.—A quietly dressed woman asked to see the parish priest of a church in Barcelona, and told him that while at mass she had dropped a purse containing a note of 1000 pesetas, all her savings. She offered a reward for its recovery.

Next day a man told the priest he had found a purse with 1000 pesetas. The loser was sent for, and insisted on making a donation of 250 pesetas to the church. The priest changed her 100 note. Unfortunately the note has proved to beurious. Its "losser" and "finders" have vanished with the change.

Motor Cycle Patrolman Carl T. Hunt Was Thrown From Machine When Tire Blew Out.

With the death today of Motor Cycle Policeman Carl T. Hunt, a high mark of $5 motor vehicle fatalities has been reached for the year. Last year's total on this date was 42.

Hunt, 30 years old, residing at 5882A Cote Brilliante avenue, was pursuing a speeder last Wednesday on the Government road in Forest Park, when tire of his motor cycle blew out, throwing him over the handlebars and fracturing his skull. Passersby took him to the Barnes Hospital in an unconscious condition. He died at 8:30 o'clock this morning.

A skull fracture suffered in an automobile accident April 11 caused the death at city hospital yesterday of Joseph Wheeler, 21, of the Hogan street.

Wheeler was riding with Fred Wittman, 1607 North Sixteenth street, when Wittman's machine was struck and overturned at Garrison avenue and Washington boulevard by the automobile of Walter Price, 2322 Warren street. Both drivers were charged then with careless driving, and Price was additionally charged with felonious wounding. Wittman suffered minor injuries.

The automobile which struck and critically injured Mrs. Irene Clement, 16, of 2104 North Tenth street, in front of 8024 South Broadway, at 7:50 p. m. yesterday, failing to stop after the accident, was found by police 30 minutes later wrecked against a telephone pole at Virginia and Robert avenues. The owner, traced by the license number, was not at home last night and still is sought by police. Mrs. Clement, who was accompanied by her husband, Lawrence Clement, suffered a skull fracture.

Virginia Butler, 9, of 1214 St. Ange avenue suffered fractures of the skull and right leg at 5:45 p. m. yesterday when knocked down at St. Ange and Hickory street by the motor cycle of Roy Koch, 1308A Gratiot street. The child's condition is critical.

WOMAN MANAGES STOCK FARM

Correspondence of the Associated Press.
CHESSINGTON, Eng., April 16.—One of the largest stock farms in England is managed by a woman, Lady Barker, of Barwell Court farm, famous for its Percheron horses. Lady Barker is not only owner of the estate, but is the actual superintendent of the farm stock. Barwell Court includes among its features a large number of white fan-pigeons, which came from the palace of Abdul Hamid. Several pairs of these birds were presented to Queen Alexandra and developed into one of the outdoor sights of Sandringham House.

Also at Barwell are two Percheron horses presented to the late Sir Francis Barker by Mr. Clemenceau, who himself owns one of the finest Percherons in France.

TRACTION DEAL ON IN THE TRI-CITIES

M'Kinley System Proposes to Take Over Rights-of-Way of Other Lines.

A deal involving traction properties in the Tri-Cities, whereby the Illinois Traction System will take over certain lines of the Alton, Granite and St. Louis Traction Co., in Madison and Granite City, is under way.

The I. T. S., known as the McKinley system, proposes to take over the right-of-way of the other system on Madison Avenue, from Market street in Madison to Nickelus Avenue in Granite City, as well as the loop tracks on Eleventh, Nineteenth, Twenty-first and B streets, Granite City.

The Alton, Granite and St. Louis would still continue its suburban service to Alton and Edwardsville. To do this, however, it will have to pass through the Tri-Cities and it is expected that it will lease part of the tracks which it is selling.

The I. T. S. now has tracks on State and G streets in Madison and Granite City. If the deal goes through, it is understood it will continue to use G street, but will use Madison Avenue instead of State street, which is narrow. It is also understood that the I. T. S. plans eventually to segregate its freight and passenger trains, which now use the same tracks.

Consent of a majority of property owners on the streets affected by the change is necessary before franchises can be obtained. Petitions for consent are being circulated. The Illinois Traction System is a subsidiary of the Illinois Power and Light Co.

Dredging of Water Courses Under Fire in War Started.

Correspondence of the Associated Press.

Ypres, Belgium, April 12.—

Restoration of the Yser region, which was flooded and devastated by shot and shell during the war, has taken years to accomplish, and it is only quite recently that all the locks and dikes of the Yser have been repaired and made safe again.

The present task is the thorough dredging of these water courses, which is proving exceptionally dangerous. So long did this part of the country lay under intensive bombardment that the dredging machines at every turn bring up quantities of unexploded shells, grenades/mines and other war material, but so far no accidents have been reported. The work will occupy the whole summer and autumn.

Ask him

Your dentist will tell you that Milk of Magnesia is a safe, sure, scientific means of counteracting the acids in the mouth which lead to Acid Decay and often to Pyorrhea. Squibb's Milk of Magnesia is the principal ingredient of Squibb's Dental Cream. It safeguards The Danger Line (where gums meet teeth) by protecting the teeth from Acid Decay and reducing the peril of Pyorrhea. It is safe for all—even for the baby.

Illinois Central System Shows That Railroads Must Borrow Money for Improvements

Some persons may have a mistaken idea about the financial condition of the railroads because of the large sums of money spent recently for improved railway facilities. In the last five years the railroads have installed 9,979 new locomotives, 8,988 new passenger cars and 584,982 new freight cars and have made other improvements to their properties at great expense. Anyone not familiar with how these improvements are financed might take them as indicating that the railroads are immensely prosperous.

Such, however, is not the case. What the railroads have left out of their revenues after meeting their current obligations is far from sufficient to pay for all the improvements they need to make. In 1924 the railroads of the country spent more than one billion dollars for property improvements. The Illinois Central System alone spent approximately $29,000,000 for these purposes. In both cases the expenditures for improvements required the investment of considerable new capital. The railroads had to raise large sums of money from investors in order to finance this expansion.

As a result of economies of operation made possible partly by their investment in improved properties, the railroads as a whole have effected in recent years a substantial improvement in net earnings. In 1921 the rate earned on the tentative valuation placed upon their properties, by the Interstate Commerce Commission for rate-making purposes was 3.33 per cent; in 1922 it was 4.14 per cent; in 1923 it was 5.22 per cent; in 1924 it was 5.00 per cent. But it should be borne in mind that the rate of return has not at any time reached the 5.75 per cent which the Interstate Commerce Commission has decided is the fair and reasonable rate that the railroads ought to be permitted to earn.

The present outlook, all things considered, is decidedly favorable to continued good railway service. The facilities of the railroads are sufficient for present needs and are being expanded to meet the increased needs of the future. By means of their increased facilities the railroads are realizing greater economies and providing better service than ever before. The public, by reason of its closer acquaintance with the railroads and improved understanding of railway problems, looks with favor upon allowing the railroads the earnings necessary to attract the new investment they need. This is as it should be. The country requires adequate transportation for its continued growth and prosperity, and adequate transportation cannot be provided except as the railroads are enabled to grow and prosper.

Service is the standard by which railroads can and should be judged. The Illinois Central System is constantly endeavoring to uphold and improve its service to the public.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

C. H. MARKHAM,
President, Illinois Central System.

BOY'S PERIOD OF LIBERTY IS BRIEF, BUT EVENTFUL

Vincent Cloonan, 15, Escaped From Detention Home, but Is Soon Caught.

Last night at 10 o'clock when everything was quiet at the House of Detention, Vincent Cloonan, 15 years old, lowered a rope from a window and slid to the ground. On the way to his home, 3729 Evans Avenue, he spied the automobile of Tony J. Orf, parked in front of Orf's residence, at 1317A North Prairie Avenue, and drove it away. He drove to a garage in South Louis, where he stole a carton of cigarettes, 13 keys and $4.20 in nickels, looting a telephone slot for the change. Then he started back home.

At 2 a.m. today police were called to a garage at 3614 Evans Avenue and found Vincent in Orf's automobile, guarded by Orf. Orf, on the lookout for the thief, had observed Vincent's return and followed him into the garage.

Vincent was unable to describe the South St. Louis garage, except to say it was one he had previously robbed or looted and $1.80. He had been held at the House of Detention for interstate transportation of a stolen automobile. Police returned him to the house before his escape had been discovered.

PUBLIC SPURNS SILVER DOLLAR

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The Treasury has admitted defeat in its effort to increase the circulation of silver dollars. The American public, it has decided, apparently is determined never again to carry any amount of the "old cart-wheels" in its money pocket.

Some months ago Assistant Secretary Dewey launched a campaign to increase the circulation of silver dollars as a means of getting the dollar bills which since the war have been used so extensively that the Bureau of Engraving and Printing has had no time to print a surplus. The campaign promised success at the start and about $10,000,000 was fed out from the Treasury, but it was not long before it came back. The circulation of silver dollars today is only about $50,000,000.

DIVORCES LEAD MARRIAGES

WASHINGTON, May 1.—While the number of marriages in the United States increased 8.4 per cent from 1922 to 1923, there was an 11 per cent increase in the number of divorces for the same period.

The figures made public today by the Census Bureau showed that there were 1,224,373 marriages throughout the country in 1923 against 1,162,226 divorces. The number of marriages per 1000 of population in 1923 is 15 years and over was 16.22. Divorces per 1000 of the married population of the country numbered 360.

FILM CONSPIRATORS DUPED

ENGLISH RESIDENTS IN INDIA

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CALCUTTA.—For sheer audacity, the case of bogus film agents which has come to light in Calcutta compels more than passing attention. It appears that a few months ago a party of men, nine of whom have since been arrested, got in touch with some leading citizens of Calcutta, representing themselves as agents of the Gaumont Co., who were commissioned to take films of topical news and of business interest.

With the aid of operators borrowed from a local firm, the party traveled in a saloon carriage on photographic expeditions on the Bengal-Nagpur Railway, for which they received $750 on account.

Their other activities included the filming of a garden party given by the Earl of Lytton at Government House, and various firms and hospitals were approached and induced to make payments on account.

Requested to show their credentials when applying for facilities for filming the new King George's dock, they produced an "authority" from the Gaumont Co.

DRINK PROBLEM IN IRELAND

Judges Condemn Excess Number of Saloons and Mixed Trade.

Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch and the Chicago Tribune.

DUBLIN, May 1.—In the inquiry instituted by the Irish Free State into the drink traffic with a view to further legislation, magistrates have given evidence condemning the excessive number of drink shops, the dangers of mixed trading and the abuse of the exemption granted to the bona fide traveler.

Magistrate Troy for South Tipperary has called the bona fide traveler a bona fide fraud. When city public houses are closed the bona fide traveler has only to go out to the suburbs to get a much drink as he wants.

A regular trade has grown up to satisfy his demands, and in the neighborhood of Dublin there are many houses whose main profit is derived from these privileged travelers from the city.

There is general agreement that the selling of drink and household necessities across the same counter has led to an increase of drinking among women. The Government's attempt to prevent this was defeated in the ball which is supposed to be too favorable to the drink interest.

$50,000 Gem Holdup in Elevator.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Unset diamonds valued at between $40,000 and $50,000 were seized by two robbers who cornered Victor Rosenbaum, a diamond salesman, in an elevator in a downtown office building yesterday, the salesman reported to the police.

NOLTE TO TRY TO COLLECT BRIDGE RENT

Terminal Railroad Association Said to Be Willing to Pay $78,000

With a view to providing a much-needed reinforcement for the city's finances, Comptroller Nolte will renew efforts to collect payment from the Terminal Railroad Association for use of the west approach of the Municipal Bridge at the rate of $1000 a month from 1914.

This rental, which the Terminal has always stood ready to pay, would total $78,000 for the period involved, and it is understood that an agreement regarding payment at the same rate for use of the bridge in the future could be reached.

Former Proceedings in Matter.

The question of the Terminal's payment for use of the bridge approach is one that has been coming up from time to time for the last six years. Two years ago, Louis P. Aloe, then president of the Board of Aldermen, took up the matter with the board and a survey by city engineers to determine fair rental charge was conducted.

The rental was placed at $1000 a month and officers of the Terminal agreed to this figure, submitting a check for $23,000 for back rent and offering to continue payment at the same rate.

After the check had been placed in the hands of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, however, opposition, headed by Frank H. Gerhart, arose on the ground that acceptance of the check would in effect give the Terminal right to continued use of the bridge in violation of the ordinance. George F. Haid, then City Counselor, rendered an opinion holding that the $23,000 payment would not oblige the city in any way, but the check wasn't accepted and the matter finally died in the Board of Aldermen.

Present Plan of Nolte.

Nolte's present plan is to re-enter the matter with the Board of Aldermen and to direct Director of Public Utilities Wall to call a meeting of the Municipal Bridge Commission, of which Wall is chairman, to consider the proposition. Other members of the commission are Mayor Miller, Comptroller Nolte, President Neun of the Board of Aldermen, and Director of Streets and Sewers Brooks. C. E. Butts is engineer of the commission.

FORMER JUDGE OF CALIFORNIA COURT ENDS 4000-MILE HIKE

Resigned From Bench and Walked From Oakland to Florida and Back.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
OAKLAND, Calif., May 1.—Dudley Kinsell, 51 years old, former member of the Alameda County Superior Court, returned to his home here yesterday with highway-hardened feet and a new perspective on life as the result of what he describes as being a casual hike to St. Augustine, Fla., and return, a distance of 4000 miles.

Kinsell's family knew he was approaching home, but did not know just when to expect him. His advent became a matter of record when a "Chinaman" was arrested by a sunburned police officer who demanded and obtained admittance after he identified himself.

Kinsell resigned from the bench several months ago after complaining of the stuffiness of his courtroom. Two months ago he expressed a desire to "hike a bit." Attired in rough clothing, he took to the road. From that time on he became a wayfarer. He reached St. Augustine and then started back here.

Judge Kinsell said he had learned many things on his jaunt, during which he shared his blankets and food with fellow wayfarers. "I learned that the world is good and that the people in it are good," he said. "Life is good; life is kind; life is true." However, he did not walk the entire distance. When the going became hard, he admits he "hummed a lift" when he was able to establish that he was not a road bandit.

SAYS LAZINESS IS CAUSED BY AN IMPROPER DIET

Assistant Superintendent of Schools Discusses Many Physical Defects Found in Children.

Lazy children and lazy men are merely sick children and sick men, and something should be done to correct these physical defects. B. G. Shackelford, assistant superintendent of schools, declared yesterday in an address before the Kiwanis Club at the American Annex Hotel. The address was on "proper Dieting" and dealt with the disclosures made through recent study of the diet and health of school children in St. Louis.

People with liver problems and eat the proper food never have the feeling of laziness," the speaker said. "Those who feel lazy or are called lazy are usually found to be physically unfit because they are not eating the proper food. Out of 52,000 pupils examined in the public schools last year, 13,000, or approximately 25 per cent, were found to be suffering from serious physical defects, many of which could be corrected by proper dieting."

Shackelford added that the mineral content of the diet is the one most often overlooked and declared that nearly all persons are on the border line of "calcium starvation." Children, especially, should drink a quart of milk a day to supply this element.

INFLUX OF SETTLERS CAUSES HOUSE SHORTAGE IN PALESTINE

By the Associated Press
JERUSALEM, May 1.—The shortage of houses in the new Palestine makes itself felt as the influx of tourists and settlers continues. Many families with little capital continue to arrive from various countries, particularly from Poland. In spite of the growing building activities in Tel Aviv, Jerusalem, and in the colonies there are not sufficient accommodations for the arrivals. A number of immigrants to keep the building activities apace with the growth of the population has been considered here.

Local banks are not in a position to meet all demands for first-class accommodations and the inability of obtaining American credits to sleep in automobiles and tents.

5 BALLOONS TO START IN NATIONAL RACE TODAY

Scott Field Officer to Be Aid in First Entry That Will Leaves St. Joseph Field in Elimination Contest.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 1.—With the start of the national elimination balloon race, which begins here at 5:30 p. m. today, mechanics early this morning began the work of inflating the five balloons entered in the race and the pilot balloon.

A civic half holiday has been declared by Mayor Grosser and all offices, stores and public schools will close to allow employees and pupils to be present at Rosecrans Field during the aerial carnival.

The starting time was changed from 4:30 to 5:30 p. m. last night. The entry of a sixth balloon to be piloted by Maj. Maurice Smith of Kansas City, with Lieut. W. J. Paul of Scott Field as aid, which was announced last night, was overruled today by Maj. A. B. Lambert, referee, as unfair competition. Maj. Smith's balloon is of 35,000 cubic feet capacity and will be used as a pilot balloon. The other bags in the contest are of 30,000 cubic feet.

Order of Starting.

Following are the entries, with the take-off time of each:

Army, Lieut. W. J. Flood, pilot, and Lieut. H. McCormick, aid; $35.

Goodege, H. W. T. VanOrman, pilot, and C. K. Wollard, aid; $40.

Army, Capt. R. E. Osgood, pilot, and Lieut. Guy Osgood, aid; $45.

St. Joseph Optimist Club, Capt. H. E. Honigwell, pilot, and Harry Preston, aid; $55.

Douglas, Herbert V. Thaden, pilot, and W. C. Naylor, aid; $55.

A fair wind was blowing from the north this morning when the work of inflation began. Maj. Lambert of St. Louis was at the field at sunrise to superintend inflation and by 8 a. m. the big bags, partly inflated, were already blowing in the wind. Several trucks of the St. Joseph Fire Department were on hand to guard against fire.

Two Kinds of Gas.

Preliminary inflation of the bags was by commercial water gas, brought to the field in an eight-inch main. During the afternoon hydrogen, which has been stored at the field, will be introduced into the balloons so that when they weigh off, they will be lifted by a mixture of hydrogen and commercial gas in equal quantities.

Two of the balloons will carry radio sets on which their crews will get weather reports while they are in the air. Capt. Orman, who won the national race last year, attributed his success to his radio which kept him apprised of weather conditions and he is carrying one again this year. He has made preparations which will give his weather conditions from a dozen radio stations. A similar set will be carried in the basket of Lieut. Flood's balloon.

Special bulletins prepared by the United States Weather Bureau will be broadcast by Station K S D, the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, at 10:30 o'clock tonight and at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow.

Honeywell Again in Race.

The dean of the pilots taking off today is Capt. Honeywell of St. Louis. Honeywell has participated in scores of races and represented the United States in the international classic in Europe two years ago.

A several score of army planes are here for the aerial circus to be given this afternoon before the balloons take off. Included in the race are three of the new Curtiss pursuit ships which made the trip here from Mt. Clemens, Mich.

In conjunction with the race the board of governors of the National Aeronautic Association is meeting here. This day was Major-General Masson M. Patrick, chief of the Army Air Service, who was accompanied by his aid, Lieut. St. Clair Street. They are traveling in Gen. Patrick's official De Havilland 4 airplane.

Lieutenant Colonel John A. Paegelow, commanding Scott Field, is expected to arrive this afternoon from Scott Field in the army airship TC-6, latest of the TC family and the largest non-rigid dirigible in the army. Many of Paegelow's officers are also here, including Lieut. Frank M. McKee, who has had charge of the preliminary arrangements at the field and the laying of 7000 feet of gas line to the field.

While the wind was blowing from the North during the early part of the day, the local weather bureau predicts it will have changed to the south or southwest

Maj. Lambert said today the

JOE and ASBESTOS—Joe Wants a Little Spending Money for That Trip Abroad

By Ken Kling

Zibby "Thinks He Owes This to Foe," Who Claimed Illness Beat Him.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Stanislav Zibyko, heavyweight wrestling champion, is willing to meet Wayne "Big" Munn in a return match at any time and any place, he announced in a telegram to promoters arranging his appearance in a title match on May 4.

"I am ready and willing at any time to wrestle Munn again so he feels that he has fully recovered," the telegram read. "I believe I owe this to Munn. In view of the fact that he says he was ill when he battled with me in Philadelphia recently."

Meanwhile preparations are advancing for the match between Munn and Ed "Strangler" Lewis in the open air arena at Michigan City, Ind., on May 30, also billed as a championship affair.

Zibyko will arrive in Chicago Saturday from the East, and will defend his title against George Kolosovas, a Greek heavyweight, in the May 4 go.

DAVIS COURT TO START TRAINING FOR ZBSYKO.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Two prominent figures in the inter-collegiate racing world will compete tomorrow when varsity crews of Princeton and the United States Naval Academy will meet on Lake Carnegie at Princeton.

It is possible that this regatta, coming early in the season, may be influential in deciding the ultimate ranking of more than one university eight, since between the Middies and the Tigers will race against most of the important eights.

The Tigers' form will be interesting if only because Dr. Sparto, the rowing director at Nassau, has the assistance of Charles Logg, captain of the University of Washington eight, who was in strong form from Young Stecher of Nebraska.

By the Associated Press.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—Charles (Phil) Rosenberg, world bantamweight champion, will defend his crown against Frankie Genaro in a 15-round bout at the Queensboro Stadium in Long Island City on June 9, according to arrangements virtually completed yesterday. The boxers are expected to sign articles Monday.

Harry Siegel, Rosenberg's manager, agreed to accept $20,000 as Rosenberg's share.

HOME RUN DRIVE HITS FIRE ALARM, CAUSES PANIC AT HOSPITAL

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, May 1.—A fire alarm, which sounded during the game between the Babe Ruth of Vancouver's soundoks, took a hitch in his bell, spattered his hands and twisted his cap rankly over one ear when he stepped to bat for the Vancouver Beavers yesterday afternoon, and they broke up the game.

The hard-smitten ball crashed against a fire-alarm box a half block away and rang in an alarm which brought out the police force to the baseball lot.

Tom Cahill, founder of the United States Football Association and present secretary of the American Soccer League, is seen to have a master mind and real executive to that.

The United States owes a considerable debt to British soccer friends who have grafted the game on America successfully.

Cahill developed both the national body and the first big intercity professional league. He made going concerns of both. He made money for both.

Now he is coming West, to put the Middle West on the map.

Karolyi's Suppressed Story Says Allies Conspired With Aristocracy to Defeat Him

Describes His Land Reform Bill and Asserts
He Offered to Step Out to Get Better Terms.

THE Post-Dispatch prints today the fifteenth of a series of articles written by Count Karolyi of Hungary, telling the story he could not reveal in speeches in this country because of a pledge exacted from him by the State Department in Washington before the Hungarian exile was permitted to land in the United States. The public is already familiar with this "gapping of Karolyi. Now that he has left the country, he has written for the Post-Dispatch the things he wanted to say to the American people.

By COUNT MICHAEL KAROLYI.

THE diplomacy of the Allies belonged to the old school. Most of them were aristocrats. They were brought up and taught to move only in the so-called smart set wherever they went. The Rivet and the Carlton's, in salons around bridge tables, were their homes. It was, and still is, decided as not quite the right thing for a diplomat to move in any other circle than the highest in the country in which he is representing his own people. The spirit of diplomacy is still that of the eighteenth century, when politics were made in salons and the best way of getting information was to pay attention to a Marquise or a Duchess.

In fact, alliances were done and undone through court intrigues. The untitled American diplomats were in a way handicapped and the salons and semi-feudal aristocracy was more easily penetrated by the diplomats of the Western countries who bore the names of historic families.

Congspiring With Autocracy. The Allies had fought, it was said, against the militarism and autocracy and against the semi-feudalism of the Central Powers. Still a few weeks after the victory, here were their representatives, always with the exception of the Americans, intriguing and conspiring with that very aristocracy who only yesterday were their bitterest enemies.

The explanation for this sudden change is the universal snobbishness of this crowd. While officially they ought to have supported me, unofficially they were intimately only with those who wanted the re-establishment of the Hapsburgs.

The non-Magyar population was treated like a sort of second-class citizens. On paper, all rights were given to them. In practice, they had scarcely any.

If we wanted to really turn over a new leaf and be a modern and democratic country, these conditions had to be changed. Universal suffrage alone would not have been enough. The thing to do was to make another land reform bill by which the distribution of the real estate should be a more reasonable and a juster one at the same time.

My scheme was roughly as follows: The land belonging to the big landowners and the Roman Catholic Church should be released. It should be appropriated and bought up by the state. The state, in turn, other hand, would sell it at a nominal price to the peasants. In the land reform bill which I established, it was stipulated that a man had the right to own more than 500 acres of rural land. The exception to this rule would have been only those estates which were run in a highly intensive manner, where the breaking up of the property would have economically harmed the unity of the state. The forests and mines were excluded from this general rule. The peasants would have bought the land not only cheaply but under very favorable conditions. After having cut up the land in this way we wanted to establish a co-operative system to enforce production as much as possible.

Radical Land Reform.

I admit that my land reform was a very radical one. Still it was based on private ownership. There was no question of confiscation but of appropriation. The landowners would have received state bonds in return for their losses. This was the only way to keep the peasant in the land. The peasants were not only beaten by the Red army, but by the Russian peasants, who fought with all their energy against them, not because they were for Lenin's theories, which they did not even understand, but because through the Bolshevik regime they got land and this land was threatened to be taken away by the counter-revolutionary troops.

The peasantry is not in general interested in the higher sphere of politics. They don't care a hang if they are ruled by a republic or a kingdom. All they care for is that they should have a bit of land and that they should be capable of selling their products with the assurance of my land reform. I had to face the double snub of the extreme Right and the extreme Left. The landowners as well as the Bolsheviks had the feeling that should I go through with my program I would be the master of the situation because I would have, as I said, 75 per cent of the population to back me up.

This was the reason why the aristocracy tried and I must say very often successfully, to persuade the government Commission that my land reform and especially my radicalism meant bolshevism.

The clergy was agitating against me with the slogan that I was breaking down the authority of the Catholic Church and that it was a conspiracy of the Free Masons and the Jews that wanted to break their power. These servants of Christ forgot the words of the Saviour who wanted his followers to lead an ascetic life and preach the Gospel in poverty; for his evangel was that of the poor and not of the rich.

Offered to Step Out.

There were no conservatives who were pacifist and friendly towards the allies, just as there were no friends of the allies who were not radical and for the overthrowing of autocracy. Theoretically, the allies were for overthrowing autocracy, imperialism and so on. In practice, they were not backing up all those who were broad-minded and liberal.

What I wanted was the best possible peace. Over and over again, I asked the members of the various entente commissions to tell me quite plainly if they would be more favorable to a Cabinet which was run by Count Apponyi or Count Andrássy. If so, I would have willingly left my post. The reply was always the same: "Count Apponyi and all the other Germanophiles wouldn't get better conditions. On the contrary, perhaps even worse."

OAHU'S DEFENSES INADEQUATE, IS VIEW AFTER MANEUVERS

Official Decision as to Winner of War Game Probably Will Not Be Made Public.

By the Associated Press.

HONOLULU, May 7.—The decision as to who won the war game centering about the battle of Oahu is probably never to be made public. In the opinion of ranking officers of the fleet, who assembled today in a secret critique to discuss the development of the joint army and navy maneuvers and pick out the faults in the defense plans of Hawaii.

The critique consists of approximately 800 army and navy officers of both the "blue" and "black" forces, who will present the condition of their ships and attempt to convince the chief umpires that they won.

Although the decision of the umpires will never probably be made

A Quick Menu to Serve When Time Shortens Dinner

By JEANNETTE YOUNG NORTON.

WHAT shall I do about dinner? This is the disturbing thought that comes to a housewife's mind, when she is planning a day's needful shopping and still must be home, in time to get the dinner. The answer is get dinner ready for you. That is, prepare everything so that the dinner may be gotten inside of a half hour upon your return. To do this, a simple menu must be prepared and everything fixed to start cooking while you are getting into your working gown. The following is a sample of a quick menu:

Menu.

Bouillon, wafers.
Fish in ramekins.
Cold baked ham, scalloped potatoes, deviled eggs.
Lettuce salad, crackers and cheese.

Fruit jelly, whipped cream, coffee.

The bouillon is made by putting a cube into each cup and filling it with boiling water. The fish ramekins must be prepared and set in the icebox and will cook in 20 minutes. Take four round ramekins of tuna fish, or salmon, drain, free from skin and bones and flake it. Add to the fish a small cupful of crumbs, a beaten egg, a tablespoonful of soft butter; pepper, salt, juice of an onion, a tablespoonful of capers, a teaspoonful of chopped celery leaves, and a little milk, or cream, to soften the mass. Heap lightly into buttered ramekins and set in the icebox until ready to bake.

Since six potatoes thin and let stand for one hour in cold water. Drain the potatoes and arrange them in a well buttered shallow baking dish. Dot generously with butter, dust with pepper and salt, sprinkle with sugar, turn in a cupful of rich milk in which an egg has been beaten, dredge with a level teaspoonful of flour mixed with a tablespoonful of grated cheese. Set in the icebox until ready to bake. This dish also bakes inside of an hour. Heat the ham, if any, cut and prepared the day ahead and need only be sliced. The eggs may be deviled and each wrapped in a bit of waxed paper, then placed in a cool place until needed.

The lettuce can be washed and put in a salad bag on the ice ready to dish in a moment when needed. Saltness and cream cheese may be served with it. For the dessert dish a good fruit jelly may be prepared quickly in the early morning and served with a cold ready for service.

It takes but a few minutes to whip the cream in a tumbler whisker, and a small bottle will be all that is needed. About the quickest way to make the jelly is to slice thinly four bananas; then dissolve a package of prepared lemon jelly and when it is cold turn it over the fruit. Set away and it will take but a minute to unmold the dish.

Now this is really quite a dinner to have ready inside of a half hour, but it is no trick at all if the directions are followed, and, of course, the table can be laid before leaving home.

Everything done, of course, saves time when you get to work preparing the dinner. Even a hot meat dish may be used instead of the ham if preferred. Sav a veal cutlet, chops, steak or croquette that have been prepared ahead of time can be fried quickly.

What to Serve :: Tomorrow ::

BREAKFAST.

Canned pineapples,
Oatmeal,
Poached egg on toast,
Fried country sausage,
Coffee, cocoa, milk.

LUNCHEON.

Tomato jelly salad,
Rolls,
Apple pie-cheese,
Coffee, tea, milk.

DINNER.

Swiss steak,
Boiled potatoes,
Baked, stuffed green peppers,
Tomato salad,
Pineapple mousse,
Coffee, tea, milk.

Tomato Jelly Salad.

Soak one tablespoonful of gelatin in a quarter of a cupful cold water. Then strain two cupfuls tomato juice and add to it one tablespoonful finely minced onion, a small bay leaf, a half teaspoonful salt, a clove and a dash of paprika. Soak the gelatin thoroughly, simmer the other ingredients for about 10 minutes and add to the gelatin. Strain and pour into molds to harden. Serve on lettuce leaves with mayonnaise dressing.

Have about two and one-half pounds round steak cut thick. Beat one pound three-fourths cupful flour into it and then sear it on both sides in a frying pan, using bacon fat for frying. Place it in a baking dish or casserole, season with pepper and salt, add a few slices of onions and mushrooms if desired. Add boiling water to cover and simmer for about two hours, adding more water as needed. Potatoes may be added about half an hour before the meat is done if desired, or can be boiled separately.

Prof. Sears Sees Girls of Today as Fine as They Ever Were

"I FIND SCHOOL GIRLS JUST AS REFINED AS EVER THEY WERE -- BUT -- SOCIETY IN GENERAL -- THAT IS ANOTHER MATTER" -- EDMUND H. SEARS.

Retiring Head of Mary Institute, Who Has Confined His Observations to School Hours, Has Found No Demoralization Among Pupils.

By MARGUERITE MARTYN.

ROBABLY no man anywhere to study the much-mooted girl problem than Prof. Edmund H. Sears, about to retire after 34 years as principal of Mary Institute.

The school, a day school for girls, a branch of Washington University, has long been one of the largest and most flourishing of its kind in the country. Admission which yearly has to be restricted to the capacity of 600, is coveted for the daughters of our most fortunate classes. Mr. Sears, in his time, has seen the daughters of two generations of many families graduate from the school, for their daughters' academic training.

"You ask me if I can observe any demoralization among girls of the present generation? I can say honestly, No," responded Mr. Sears at the beginning of an interview accorded me in the apartments where he and Mrs. Sears now reside at the Chase Hotel. Then he paused to remind me that, for all his years of intimate contact officially his knowledge of girls extends no farther than their conduct during school hours and within the premises of the school building and grounds at Lakewood and Western avenues. Purposefully he said, he has kept himself aloof from society, confining himself to a few intimate friends, lest the abundant hospitality he has met here would infringe upon the time due his work.

"I can say honestly, No," he continued reflectively. "Girls are just as fine, just as natively sensitive and delicately organized as ever they were. In our standards of conduct and tastes at Mary Institute we have endeavored to accommodate modern conditions and we have no department problems at the school. Indeed, what with the colleges demanding stiffer standards of scholarship, those students who aspire to these grades have less time for frivolity than in former times.

"Our course of study at Mary Institute has been greatly broadened upon the one hand and deepened upon the other. We have two parallel branches. The colleges insisting upon girls being able to pass the same examinations as boys, in one course, we prepare them accordingly. Not that I am altogether in sympathy with this course. When I have attained the leisure to which I am looking forward, I may feel moved to write on this subject. I thoroughly disbelieve in girls, the average girl, being required to pass the same examinations as boys. I would not discourage such training for women who have the legal mind or those preparing for a professional career. But I cannot see wherein the rigid training makes for broader woman. I think it is restrictive. Indeed, I can see where it stifles the natural longings upon the esthetic side of life. But we have another course in which we provide for the esthetic development. Graduates from this course are accepted at the state universities, Washington University and other Western colleges. It embraces, besides good ground work in literature, the languages, mathematics, history, and the visual arts that has assumed very broad dimensions, including drawing, color work, designing, pottery, leather and metal work and a really splendid domestic science course in which the students get a great deal of applied chemistry and science. It is planned in the future to pay still more attention to music, the understanding of the operas, symphonies and those classes of

"Now this latter course is by far the most popular at Mary Institute. From this I think it may be argued that the tastes of the modern girl, for all the many conspicuous departures, are basically just, what they have always been. They are most interested in studies that are along the same direction as that of their mothers' interests and are quick to take advantage of added opportunities along the same lines. I believe, for example, an English class of students which we read recently much the same as classic and standard novels their mothers read—Jane Austen, Thackeray, Dickens, Thomas Hardy—and this year's class is one of the most enthusiastic I ever had."

"Are they the same girls who read Michael Arlen, Scott Fitzgerald and other moderns, who come to school in frocks much abbreviated, rouge on their cheeks and lipsticks and cigarette holder in their petticoats?" I inquired.

"You ask me," he reflected with emphasis. "I do not know what they read outside school hours, though when I ask at the beginning of the term what they have read during vacation they name books which have led me to believe the taste we attempt to cultivate has prevailed. We do not read modern novels in my class.

"I hear that girls smoke, that some of them are smoking a great deal. You ask me, however, if they do not do it at school, I do not give the artificial complexion. I think it is rather frowned upon at this particular school at this particular time, and it is the way of girls not to want to be different from her immediate associates. They do dress in the prevailing styles and I think they are very sensible styles. The new interest in athletics I believe is responsible for the new type of girl. Interest in athletics is one of the strongest traits of the age and I believe it is in athletics that the short skirts and blouses, lack of freedom of movement are traceable. I am glad to see that every available foot of the school grounds is in use for some sort of outdoor sport."

Mary Institute girls are faultless and blameless, was his conclusion at least when they are within the school grounds.

"I am not concerned with demoralization among young people in society as a whole, that is altogether a different matter," resumed Mr. Sears in another tone of voice, to the fact that students came to school in their own automobiles and were up and away caring all over the city and countryside as soon as dismissed from classes.

The new Country Day school I hear forbids students coming to school in automobiles. They are required to use the street car.

I hear that the girls go to "impossible, honey," he wrote, "briskly, firmly. 'Things are in shape with the San Francisco girls. I've got to go.' My division manager is going to meet me in Chicago. Can't afford to keep him waiting."

"But what shall I do?" Will he make up his mind?

"But Charles," she cried in tears, "he must leave for California to-morrow."

"He is almost happy, as you know, Charles," she said.

"He is almost happy, as

CHAPTER 43.

A DANGEROUS QUESTION. Saturday morning Charles Cullum up at his hotel.

"The stage is set," he said. "Doris is soreckless!"

"I can't stay a minute, really."

she laughed, as she took the duplicate score he offered. "Enid Palmer's waiting for me downstairs in her car. You've never met her, but she quite raves about you—and she wanted me to ask you a question for her."

Her eyes flashed with mischief and the corners of her lips curved upward adorably.

"Yes?" Cullum's own eyes watched her hungrily.

"Doris wants to know," explained Doris, despite her twinkle. "If you really kiss as well as it looks on stage? I told her I'd ask you."

There was a moment's breathlessness like the terrifying silence before the storm. Doris caught her breath in sudden panic.

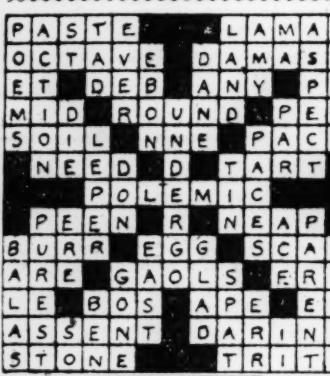

"I'll show you," muttered Cullum hoarsely.

His iron control broke.

With a single gesture, he caught her off her feet, crushed her to him, and kissed her on the lips.

out Music.

Belasco's "The Star" and "Music Box" will perform next season a play without music for the Belasco. Many comedians have longed to play scenes, but it is left for Miss Hayes to make the first spectacular plunge.

There was a time when Fannie sold papers in the streets. Her ambition to be an actress led her to New York, Brooklyn, where rewarded her with 25 cents singing a Yiddish ballad. A brief tour in a forgotten drama called "The Royal Slave" dipped into burlesque.

TOUGH LUCK.

HERE was a man in our town who was a court official; His knowledge of the traffic laws

Was somewhat superficial. And when a copper hauled him in, Much to his indignation, He had to prosecute himself For traffic violation.

The law does not make fish of one And of another fowl; And, after all is said and done, He had no cause to howl. So, when we read between the lines,

We find this little moral: A guy who don't believe in signs With cops should never quarrel.

Boy, bring forth the cocktail shaker!

See where Kentucky Cardinal was sold for $70,000. John McGraw once offered $250,000 for a St. Louis Cardinal.

Garry Hermann is going to build a $1,500,000 grandstand to compensate the Royal Red Rooters for the loss of their beer while in St. Louis.

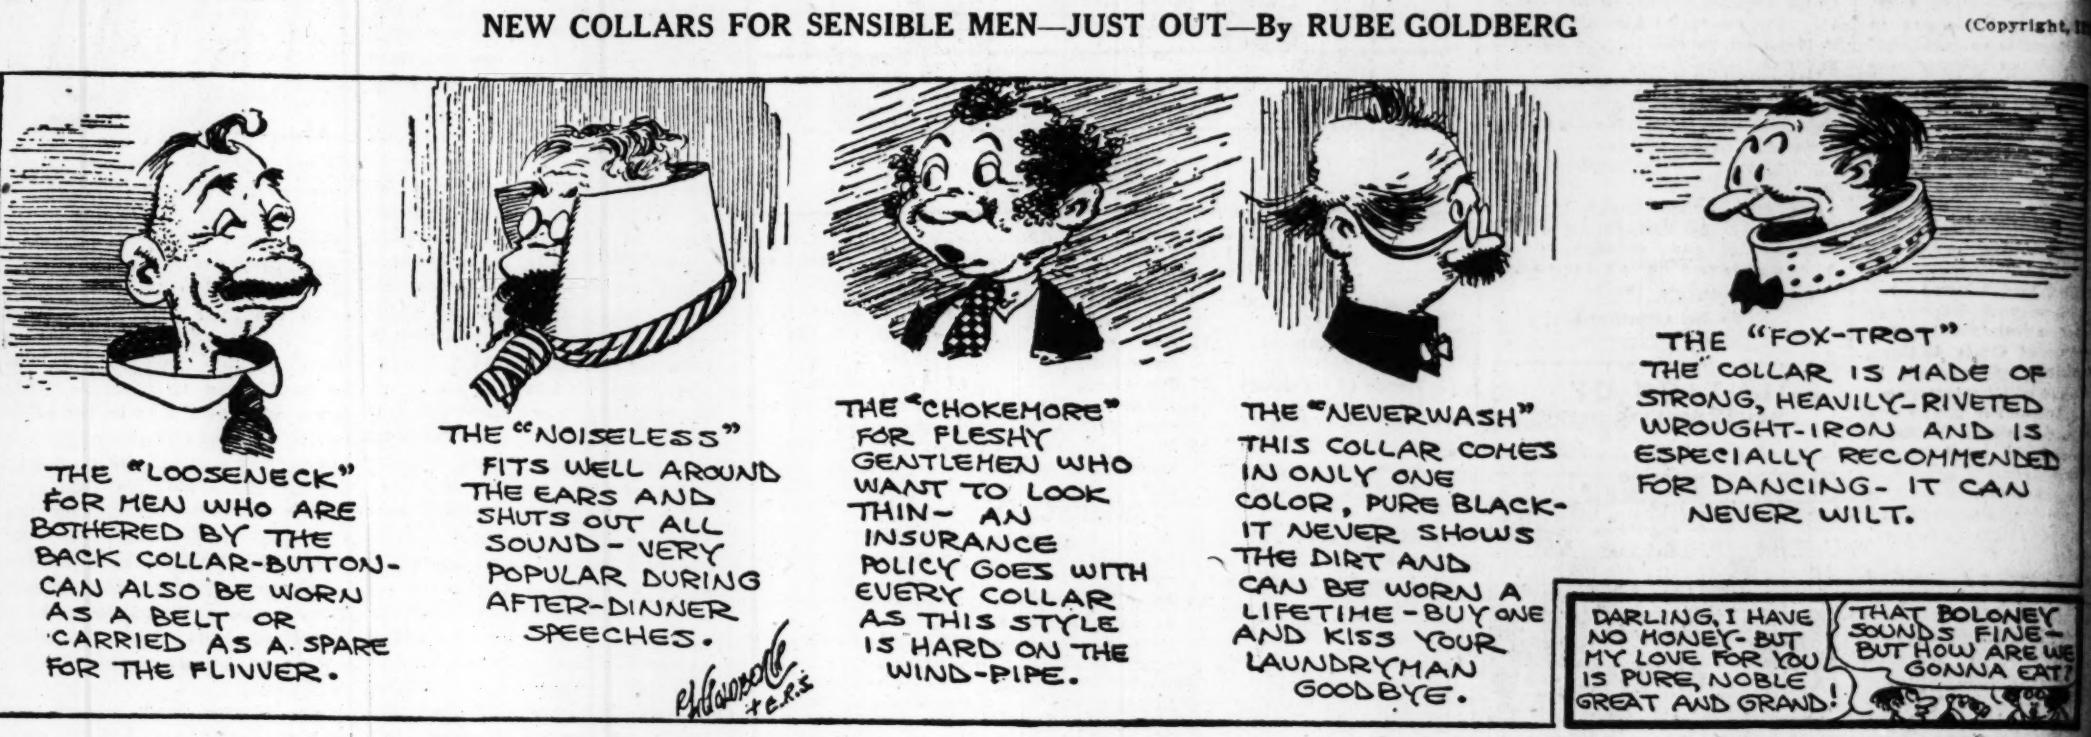

The last census gave Cincinnati a population of a little over 401,000, mostly all baseball fans.

"Beauty Clay Maker Will Face Mail Fraud Charge."

His name will be mud, we take it.

We note that England has restored the gold standard. How birthday.
